Name: Charlotte Cordelia Cullen

Age: 18

Birthday: December 21st

Parents: Rosalie and Emmett Cullen

Powers: Dream Manipulation and Shield Penetration

Mate: Felix Volturi

Face Claim:

Prologue

Rosalie was walking back home to the manor in Ireland when she hears something, stopping she goes in that direction to find a baby in a basket wrapped in a pink blanket. Gently picking her up, Rosalie rocks her in her arms. "Shh" she hums a tune her mother would sing her when she was a baby. As the child calms down, Rosalie looks at the baby with longing. Something she could never have.

As she stared for some time she realized she's in the woods, looking up and around she doesn't see anyone around "did someone abandon you?" She demands, she would make fists but she remembers she has a human baby in her arms "oh" stroking the baby's face "I'm keeping you since no one wants you"

Holding the baby close to her she gets to the manor, walking inside she's met by Edward who demands "why do you have a baby?" He heard her thoughts and came to check it out.

"I have a baby because I'm keeping her" walking into the house "where is everyone?"

"Out hunting" Edward interrogates her "you can't keep her" Rosalie growls at him "Jasper will kill"

"Who" Jasper comes in then asking in his southern accent "will I kill?"

"This baby" Edward jabs his finger in Rosalie's direction.

"A baby?" Esme asks, running over to Rosalie they fond over the baby "she's beautiful, who does she belong to"

"Me" Rosalie smiles, everyone frowns at her "she was left in the woods to die, she's mine"

"I have baby formula" Alice had a vision of Rosalie finding the baby and took it upon herself to get baby supplies "I also have some clothes and other things for the baby"

"Carlisle" Edward whines "they can't be serious"

"Carlisle" Rosalie looks at him "tell your first born venom son that if he keeps up his attitude I will kill him"

"She is a cute baby" Jasper poked her face "small"

"I'm keeping her" Rosalie stares "and that's final" Edward runs out of the manor then in fury.

~Two Years Later~

"What is this?" Alice points to a teddy bear. For a two year old, Charlotte is a very smart little girl.

"My teddy bear" she points, just then Alice is pulled into a vision.

Alice's Vision

Teenager Charlotte has red hair, beautiful blue eyes, pale skin and a tall body with curves. She looks at Felix staring at him with tears in her eyes, Felix is down on one knee with a ring in his hand.

"Charlotte Cordelia Cullen" he asks "I've waited for you for centuries and now that your here I will never let you go" tears run down her face "I love you and you change my life every single day making it so fucking interesting" Charlotte laughs "so will you do me the honor of letting everyone know your my wife and don't belong to anyone but me?"

"Yes my big teddy bear" she jumps into his arms kissing him.

"What?" Edward exclaims seeing the vision "him!"

"What?" Rosalie asks worried, going over to pick Charlotte up.

"Alice just had a vision of Charlotte" Edward glares, knowing that adopting Charlotte was a terrible idea. But did anyone listen? No he thinks.

One

"I don't see why today is such a big deal" I'm between my parents as we wait for Alice to tell us to go inside "I mean it's just a new girl"

"It's so we can introduce ourselves" Alice jumps excitedly clapping her hands together "besides it'll be fun"

"I already met her" my family looks at me

"And?" Dad asks

"She's really fucking boring" dad and Uncles Jasper and Edward laugh.

"Language" mom scolds me

"Sorry" I think back to it "but she is, she needs serious help with her style and her personality" then I mimic going to kill her "I was so close to taking my pencil and jabbing it in her one of her eyes just to make her more interesting"

"I'm sure she isn't that boring" Uncle Edward smiles "I mean, she could be going through a phase?"

"I've never heard of a girl going through a boring girl phase" shaking my head "besides I'm sure if we replaced her with a trash can no one would notice"

"Oh" dad laughs "that's mean"

"No" shaking my head "that's the truth" looking at Aunt Alice "since I've already met her"

"Go in" she shoos me away

"See you in there baby" mom kisses my head, I nod before heading inside. When I do I get my normal, a pizza and some chips and a bottle of water. When I head over to the table, I'm stopped by Jackass Newman-I mean, nope I mean Jackass Newman.

His real name is Mike Newman, he is a football or basketball player for Forks High's team. He has blonde or dirty blonde hair more like it, with blue eyes and pale skin. His whole demeanor screams F-boy, which he also is. Before the new girl Bella came to school, this one girl Tabitha-nice sweet girl-she made the mistake of falling for Jackass Newman here and now she's living in California with her aunt because she's pregnant. Jackass denies it, but everyone knows the truth. He even got Gossip Girl aka Jessica Stanley to spread that Tabitha had been sleeping with everyone around us. I swear those two are perfect for each other.

"Hi Charlotte, you look amazing" he smiles to me, I give a blank face "so your here by yourself? No family?" Also I don't look amazing, since I went to bed late I quickly threw on a grey dress with black boots and a black leather jacket. I didn't even apply any makeup and I put my hair into a messy bun.

[image]

"No Jackass" looking over "here comes my brother" I see dad come over and glare at Jackass making him flee "thanks dad"

"Of course" we get to our table and I sit between mom and him "I'm going to miss pizza"

"You know" mom tells me taking my hand "you don't have to change"

"I know" nodding my head "but I want to" she sighs nodding her head. She knows once I've made up my mind, nothing can stop me.

"I know" she sighs "just" looking at me "can't you have a boyfriend before we change you"

"No" dad firmly states "no dating"

"Who's dating?" Uncle Jasper asks

"No one" I tell them as he and Aunt Alice arrive "mom just wants me to date and dad doesn't" thinking "I mean I could always hookup and"

"None" dad glares at me "of that either"

"Uh huh" I mean, if he's worried about pregnancy he shouldn't be. Grandpa prescribed me birth control when I was thirteen. As I eat my food in silence, I realize it's really quiet and look up to see Uncle Edward glare at the new girl who've I've decided to name as Boring Bella and Alice staring between them "what's going on?"

"Boring Bella?" Uncle Edward smirks looking over at me "really?"

"Gave my reasons, why are you glaring at her?" looking over at the table Boring Bella is at there's Jackass Newman, Gossip Girl, Puppy Dog Eric, Bitch Face Lauren, Too Needy Tyler and Angela. Angela Webber is the only person at that table worth getting to know.

Uncle Edward laughs, we look over seeing him covering his mouth "what?" Mom asks

"Your daughter" Uncle Edward looks at me "has some funny names for each person the new girl is sitting with" then his face becomes serious "I can't hear her thoughts" so that's why Uncle looks like he has something uncomfortable put up his ass, he turns his glare to me. What? If he didn't want to hear that then he shouldn't be listening in on my thoughts.

"Oh?" Dad asks "what are these names?"

"You know" shrugging my shoulders "names"

"Such as?" Uncle Jasper asks

"You've got Jackass Newman, Boring Bella, Gossip Girl, Puppy Dog Eric, Bitch Face Lauren, Too Needy Tyler and Angela" eating another chip "Angela is the only person there I actually like" standing up to throw my tray away "and I'm going to say hi to her" getting rid of my tray I go over to Angela and smile "Hi Angie"

"Hi Lotte" I sit down between her and Gossip Girl "not eating with your siblings?"

"Already did, wanted to come over and say hi" looking at her "hi"

"Have you met Bella?" Gossip Girl asks gesturing to Bella who's hair is slightly disheveled and makeup that needed to be reapplied. Huh, so she isn't boring. Just a slut.

"Yes" nodding my head "we've met"

"So your brother" Bella asks me

"Which one?" Crossing my arms "I've got three"

"Edward obviously" so she does have an interesting bone in her, it's just the slutty and bitchy version. Never mind then, I'll call her Dirty Little Whore "what's his deal?"

"Bella" Gossip Girl exclaims "I just said not to waste your time"

"I'm just asking a simple question" looking at me "well?"

"No deal" drinking some water "he's gay" if she's trying to get with my family I will kill her, I hear my dad burst out laughing loudly while Uncle Edward glares at me. I see my mom, Aunt Alice and Uncle Jasper very amused but conceal it better than dad.

"Gay?" Gossip Girl asks "so that's why he never said yes to me" she mutters to herself.

"He isn't gay is he?" Angela whispers in my ear

"Nope" I whisper to her before kissing her on the lips briefly, getting up "I'll see you later" it's what we do Angela and I, we sometimes kiss each other platonically. We don't like each other that way.

"Bye" she waves, when I get to my family Uncle Edward glares at me.

"Gay?!" He harshly whispers

"I don't like Little Dirty Whore" mom snorts "I've changed Boring Bella to Little Dirty Whore" looking at her "what? That bitch should be lucky she's been upgraded"

~Time Skip~

As my family and I wait outside for Uncle Edward, I realize something "mom?" Walking over to her and Aunt Alice. She looks at me "I have a question"

"Yes baby?" She wraps an arm around my shoulder.

"If I am changed while a virgin" I whisper "will be a virgin forever? Like will my hymen be frozen for all eternity" Mom and Aunt Alice stare at me.

"Oh look" mom gestures to behind me "Edward is here" I look over and see him extremely pissed.

"What's going on?" I walk over and join Uncle Jasper under the umbrella. I give him a hug, he feels everyone's emotions so it's hard for him to be near people.

"None of your fucking business" Edward snaps at me "your just an insignificant human that's lucky she isn't dead yet!" Uncle Jasper puts his body in front of mine, I stay silent looking away. Mom comes over to me and hugs me, her eyes black as she glares at Edward.

"Don't" dad warns shoving Uncle Edward "ever speak to my daughter that way again" we then see Bella come out covering her face, she then gets into her truck.

She then screams "what!" At us when Uncle Edward continues to glare at her then grabs the top of the car making a dent. She then drives off.

~Two Weeks Later~

I'm in my room writing in my diary, ever since I turned ten I started to write in a diary. Each day I write about something different, even if they are completely boring things like what I had for breakfast or something else. Ever since Uncle Edward left to go to the Denali's because it turned out that Bella Swan is his blood singer, knowing him he'll kill her just like the other blood singers mom told me about in the past but because of this treaty my family can't kill anyone. I don't know much about the treaty but I know that when my family turns me that I'll be out of Forks by then. Now Uncle Edward is back and things have become really fucking messy.

Dear Diary,

I hate Bella Swan, I mean I hate her with a passion that I am attempting to steal her personal files to see what her fears are and use them against her. If your wondering what she did today, well she kept bothering me about why Uncle Edward and my whole family is so weird. Then the teacher decided we needed to do a partner project, so she and I are going to La Push to do a project on the Native American tribe that lives there. History and the people, stuff like that.

But what's weird is that my family has been acting weirded lately, not because of Uncle Edward but something else. I remember them acting weird a few other times before but now it's different. It's like they are trying to keep me from someone, I don't know who but they aren't telling me. I feel like they need to because it's my life and if it concerns me then I need to know.

God what the fuck is going on?

I stop writing for the moment when I hear a knock on my door "who is it?" I call out

"It's me" Uncle Edward's voice rings through "can I come in?"

"I don't know" thinking "are you going to say I'm an insignificant human again?"

"No" he grits out, I think for a moment before I get up and unlock my door then open it to see Uncle Edward there with a present in his hands "an apology" he hands me the present. I open it to see their oil pastels, I like to draw and color on my free time.

"Thanks" opening the door more, he walks inside.

"I heard your going to La Push with Bella for a school project" I nod my head "this weekend there's this beach thing she invited me to" did I forget to mention that Uncle Edward thinks Bella's his mate because he can't hear her mind? "It's in La Push and"

"Are you asking me to he a spy?" Setting the oil pastels down, I cross my arms.

"Yes" he stares at me "your not a vampire so you can go onto La Push"

"And?" I ask "Bella isn't my concern"

"Well she's my mate" he growls at me "so your going to go onto La Push and make sure nothing happens!" Just then Uncle Jasper runs into my room standing between us.

"Leave" Uncle Jasper warns "or else"

"Or else what?" Uncle Edward persists "I mean why is she even around? She's just a weak human"

"Edward!" We see grandpa standing outside of my door "Leave Charlotte's room! Now!" When he doesn't move "I won't ask again, leave now!" When Uncle Edward does leave he slams the door on the way out, I flinch when that happens.

"Why does he hate me?" I ask Uncle Jasper "what did I ever do to him?"

"Nothing" Uncle Jasper looks at me "this goes back to when your mother found you"

"Are my parent home?" I ask

"No" shaking his head "it's just me and your grandparents with Edward"

"Uncle Jasper? Why does Uncle Edward hate me?" I remember the many times Uncle Edward was close to killing me, my family all had to stay home and make sure that didn't happen. I even remember a time when Uncle Edward broke my arm when he dropped something and handed it back to him. Aunt Alice and grandma were there and even saw the entire thing "am I his blood singer?"

"No" shaking his head "I don't know why, just that he was very against in having your mother adopt you" I feel like there's something else "if you were his blood singer it would be much different"

"So does he hate mom? Her decision?" I am so confused.

"I can't answer that" he tells me "because I don't know" looking at me "I'll stay here until your parents come back, Edward was sent to go hunting but he's still here"

"Can you feel his anger?" He nods his head, I nod my head and go to work on my project "Uncle Jasper? I have an entirely different question since my parents can't answer it"

"What's the question?" He asks standing there

"I asked about being turned with my hymen still intact" he nods his head "is my hymen going to stay intact and frozen or"

"It'll be intact" he tells me "during the time when I trained many newborns, a few were virgin women and they complained about it. That their staying virgins for all eternity" I nod my head "this doesn't mean you should go out and be...intimate with some random guy"

"Okay" I laugh "another question" he nods his head "in" I look at my paper "the year 1863 where was the most casualties and why? Also who was the commanding general at the time for the confederates?"

"Nice try" he laughs "you" grabbing my textbook he opens it to a paper and hands it to me "need to look for it for yourself"

"Okay"

"So how come your brother isn't here?" I inwardly groan as Bella bugs me about Uncle Edward. A few days ago Angela invited me to come to La Push, I told her I'd get back to her on that but then Uncle Edward screamed at me when we got home to call Angela and tell her I'd be here. After much debate, it was decided that I come here because grandpa wanted Uncle Edward to be happy.

"Because he isn't" I snap

"Yeah but"

"Hey Bella!" We see three guys come over, all have long black hair and tanned skin.

"Jake!" I notice her start to flirt "what are you doing here? Stalking me?" Luckily his friends see past her and her stupid act.

"Your on my turf" he goes over to her and smiles down at her, I see him looking at her lips. Shaking my head I get up and leave to walk on the beach.

"Lotte!" Angela calls out "where are you headed?"

"I'm going to take a walk" is all I say, leaving them I walk on the beach. Since it's a bit chilly outside I'm wearing a long black dress with a blue denim jacket with sandals.

(No necklace and bags)

As I walk along the beach I think about my life and Uncle Edward being a jackass. As I think I don't notice the soccer ball that came my way and hit me head. I fall on my back since the ball came at me hard and fast.

"Are you okay?" I hear some guy ask, groaning I look up at the blurry sky three shirtless tanned guys with six packs and muscled, cropped dark hair with tattoos on their arms and they are just wearing shorts looks down at me.

"I think I'm seeing a mirage" someone helps me up, I go over and I touch each guys face "not a mirage"

"Sorry about that" the guy holding me says "I'm Jared, that's Paul and Sam"

"Charlotte" shaking my head "god that hurt"

"How many fingers am I holding up?" Sam asks me, he holds up two fingers.

"Two"

"Why does she smell so sweet?" Paul demands "she smells like a leech"

"A what?" I ask looking around "ugh, here comes Bella Swan" I see her with that guy Jake.

"We're leaving" Bella grabs my hand and I stumble, I pull my hand back "what?"

"You aren't my mom" I snap "so don't order or pull me around like you fucking own me"

She narrows her eyes on me "what did I ever do to you?"

"I don't know" sarcastically saying "maybe it's the constant nagging and wondering why my family or more specifically my brother doesn't want to fuck your bland ass" I hear some "oohs" from being me.

"You bitch!" She goes to punch me but I grab her wrist and punch her nose hard "ugh!" Grabbing her nose we see blood come down it "I'm pressing charges!"

"Go ahead" I taunt "and I'll press charges on you with constant harassment" she glared at me "and I'll put a restraining order on you"

"Fuck you!" She screams

"I'm sure your buddy Jake here does that just fine" when she came over her lips were swollen and her hair was disheveled. Plus she has a hickey on her neck.

When she goes to punch me this time, her friend grabs her and brings her away from me "your just some stupid Cullen!" She screams at me pulling me, her friend drags her away.

"Cullen?" I hear a gutteral snarl, looking over I see that Paul guy shifted into a large wolf and snarls at me.

"Oh" I take a few steps back and the wolf swipes his paw across my chest, blood comes from my wound and I fall back.

"Shit!" Someone screams "Jared put pressure on the wound" everything becomes blurry but then I fall into darkness.

~Rosalie's POV~

"Hello?" Carlisle answers the phone, right now me and my mate are in the living room waiting for Charlotte to come home. Edward is over by Bella Swan's house waiting for her to return home. Alice and Jasper are out going for a walk and Carlisle and Esme are playing chess when the phone rang "yes this is he" I don't pay attention till Carlisle calls my name.

"Yes?" I ask

"That was the La Push hospital" he tells me "Charlotte was attacked by a wolf"

"What?!" Emmett and I exclaim

"I'm calling the elders" Carlisle has the phone to his ear "remember the treaty"

"Fuck the treaty!" I scream, I run out of the house and go to La Push but someone grabs me. I see it's Jasper "let me go!"

"No!" He pulls me back to the house, once I'm there Emmett pulls me into his arms.

"What's going on?" Edward comes back then, all I see is rage.

"You!" I snarl, Jasper comes back over and holds me back "she's in the hospital because of you!"

"Who?" He asks confused

"One of the La Push shifters" Carlisle comes in then "attacked Charlotte after hearing Bella call her a Cullen, apparently she and Bella got into a heated argument"

"I'm sure it wouldn't have happened if Charlotte didn't provoke Bella" Edward crossed his arms. Jasper and Emmett's grip tightens more when I try to murder Edward.

"According to elder" Carlisle says "Bella was the one who caused the argument, not Charlotte" Edward scoffs "I don't have time for this, Rosalie" I don't look over "Esme and I are given permission to go over to La Push but they'll let you come since I explained your her mother"

"You" I point at Edward "better pray my daughter comes out of this alive or I'm killing Bella making you watch" I follow Esme and Carlisle out of the house and head to the hospital.

When we get to the hospital, I have to hold back my disgust seeing the wolves here. One in a wheelchair comes forward "hello Carlisle, I'm Billy we spoke over the phone"

"Yes" Carlisle nods his head

"Where's my daughter?" I interrupt what was going to be a long conversation.

"She's in surgery" the wolf tells me

"What happened?" Esme asks

"Your daughter was walking on the beach" the wolf looks my way "she was in deep thought about something and didn't hear me or the others call for her to duck since we kicked a soccer ball hard. She fell over, we helped her stand and after a few moments Bella Swan came over and yanked her wrist telling her that they were leaving. Charlotte pulled back and said Bella wasn't her mother or anything" he then tells me the rest, my anger grows as I hear this.

"Carlisle" I growl "I don't care if Edward is in love, Bella Swan is not his mate and now my daughter is in the hospital because of him"

"How is this Bella's or Edward's fault?" The elder asks

"One of our coven members believes Bella is his mate" Esme explains "he was worried when he heard Bella was coming down here so he had Charlotte come down here"

"More like threatened" I scoff "my daughter shouldn't have been down here to begin with"

"Rosalie" Carlisle places a hand on my shoulder "I know your upset but this isn't helping anyone"

"Your right" nodding my head "what will help me is killing Edward"

Four

~Charlotte's POV~

Beeping. I hear beeping, my eyes flutter opening up to see where I am. Looking around I see I'm in a hospital, a hospital? Why am I in a hospital? My arm has an IV attached to it. Then I remember, Paul turning into a wolf, the fight I had with Bella "Charlotte" I look up to see mom come over "oh baby" she kisses my forehead wiping my hair away from my face "you are never going back to La Push ever again" dry tears are in her eyes.

"The treaty" I ask "does it have something to do with wolf shifters?"

"It does" nodding her head "you've been asleep for two weeks"

"Um" sitting up, with moms help. My chest hurts a lot from when the shifter scratched me "what's happened while I was asleep?"

"Bella knows about vampires" mom growls "Edward told her and now he's bringing her over to visit this weekend"

"Are you fucking kidding me?" I demand "that bitch"

"I'd scold you" mom holds me "if I wasn't so scared that you were going to have died" she sighs "your dad is at home, we're in La Push hospital and only I've been given permission to be down here"

"Mom?" I need to know "I need to know why Uncle Edward hates me so much"

Mom stares at me "I wish I could tell you, I really wish I could but I don't know why he hates you" we hear a knock at the door "it's one of the shifters"

"It's okay" I put a hand on her arm "come in!" I call out, I see that guy Paul come in guiltily "hi" when he gets to my bed mom growls.

"That's close enough dog" she warns

He glares at mom then looks at me "I want to apologize, for shifting and putting you here. I'm still a new shifter and any little thing that angers me sets me off"

"So hearing my last name" I ask. He nods his head "that's why you were so angry?"

"Yeah" he looks between us "I'll go now" he then leaves.

"When am I going home?" I ask just then the doctor comes in.

~Time Skip~

I'm in the kitchen sitting down looking around as I watch everyone get ready for Bella's arrival. Aunt Alice and Uncle Jasper are out hunting since Uncle Jasper can feel Uncle Edward's emotions and apparently her blood is very appealing. The first thing that happened when I got home was that everyone hugged me but Uncle Edward, according to dad he was with Bella. When he got home he scowled my way and blamed me for what happened to Bella.

"Is she even Italian?" Mom demands holding the salad bowl "and you" she looks at me "you shouldn't even be up right now, you should be asleep"

"Her name's Bella" dad looks at mom like it's obvious.

"Just because her name is Bella" I say "doesn't mean shit"

"Language" mom scolds me

"Lotte is perfectly fine being right there" grandpa tells mom "and I'm sure she'll love it no matter what"

"But just in case" I hold my hands out "we don't need you murdering her mom" the others laugh, mom hands me the bowl and it's on the table now.

"Get a whiff of that" mom growls, everyone but her and me look excited "here comes the bitch"

"I call her a Nasty Little Whore" mom smiles

"Girls" grandpa scolds, just then Bella and Uncle Edward come in and grandma goes to them.

"Bella" grandma looks at him "we're making Italiano"

"For you" Edward looks at her completely ignoring me "Bella, this is Esme my mother for all intents and purposes"

"You've given us an excuse to cook for someone other than Lotte" Bella looks my way and she waves her hand but I just stay silent.

"I heard about the attack" Bella tries to make a conversation with me "sorry about that"

"I'm going to my room" I leave then not needing to be here, when I head to my room I close and lock the door. I lie down on my bed and fall asleep, the medication that I've been given makes me very sleepy but also very nauseous. I soon hear a knock at my door "who is it?"

"It's me" Uncle Edward answers "Bella wants to see your room"

"No" I grab my phone

"Why not?" Bella complains

"Because you aren't welcome here" I answer

"Charlotte" Uncle Edward sternly speaks "Cordelia Cullen, you will open this door and"

"Edward!" I hear mom "leave my daughter be and tend to your human whore"

"Rosalie" Uncle Edward growls "leave"

~Time Skip a Few Months~

It's been a few months since Bella came or forced herself into our lives thanks to Uncle Edward. Because of my wolf attack and the medication I was asleep as the nomad vampires that were in the area attacked Bella. But because Edward demanded everyone help keep her safe, mom called the La Push shifters and they agreed to help keep me safe.

It was actually a very eventful time as I was in La Push, I got to do things that my family didn't do with me since we couldn't do them. Or I couldn't. Like go out partying.

Flashback

"Wait!" Jared holds his hand up "you've never been to a party before? Like with keg stands or a bonfire?" Right now I'm in the pack house with Sam, Paul and Jared.

"Sorry" shaking my head "my Aunt Alice only threw very sophisticated parties or go to school dances"

"Your mom grabbed a bunch of your clothes and stuffed them in your bag" Paul says "there's a bonfire down in La Push, your coming with us"

"Really?" Looking around

"Yeah" Jared nods his head "you need fun before being turned into a...vampire" I'm sure he wanted to say leech but didn't.

"Found something" Paul brings out some summer clothes "don't worry, Jared and I are like over 100 degrees each"

"Alright" I get up and take the clothes going into the bathroom when I look in the mirror I see I'm wearing a purple top with black shorts and boots. My wolf scars are showing but I don't care.

Coming out of the bathroom, I hear someone whistle. "Come on" Jared wraps an arm around my shoulder and leads me out of the house.

"Sam?" I look at the alpha "are you coming with?"

"No" shaking his head "I'll make sure the nomads aren't around"

"Aka" Paul tells me "he's going to be patrolling in his wolf form" I nod my head and it takes us twenty minutes to get to the bonfire.

"Come on" Jared takes my hand and he introduces me to some of his friends. Paul gives me a red cup filled with beer, when I sip it I make a face.

"You'll get use to it" one of his friends says

"What the fuck are you doing here?" I look behind me to see Jake or whatever is name is behind me with two of his friends.

"She's here with us Jacob" Paul comes to my side "just because your slut isn't wetting your dick enough doesn't mean you can act like an asshole right now"

"Shut the fuck up Paul!" Jacob screams at him, the music dies down and everyone looks at us "Bella isn't like that, she's"

"Sweet and innocent?" I ask "that's rich!"

"Jacob" one of his friends grabs his arm "this isn't the time and Charlotte did nothing wrong"

"No!" He screams "Charlie told me dad how Bella left because she was feeling trapped and she never felt this way until after she went out with this freaks brother!"

"Enough! Jacob your drunk" Jared grabs his arm "Charlotte did nothing wrong, plus this doesn't sound like something out of the blue"

"Yeah" Paul adds "didn't Bella Swan years ago throw a tantrum about not wanting to be here because it was damp and rainy?"

"She was a kid" Jacob screams "she's changed"

"Sure sounds like" Paul sarcastically agrees "since we're lying to ourselves, why don't you tell everyone how Chief Swan isn't an asshole who's basically not the reason why your mom is dead and dad is in a wheelchair?" Jacob goes to punch Paul but his friends hold him back.

"That's low Paul" one of Jacob's friends says

"Why" I suggest "don't we go?"

"I think that would be best" someone says, Jared helps me back to the truck.

Flashback ends

Ever since that night Jared, Paul and Sam have deemed themselves as older protective brothers who also help me have fun. Ways that my family don't let me, since Alice can't see the future when I'm La Push it's so relieving being able to not worry about your decisions. So the entire summer, I've spent it hanging out with the guys.

Right now I'm heading downstairs since Paul is taking me to go cliff diving. I'm currently wearing a stripped top with black jeans and slip on converse. "Where are you going?" Mom asks as I come down the stairs.

"Paul and the guys are taking me to the beach" I answer

"Why?" I hear the Nasty Little Whore ask "why would anyone want to hang out with her?"

"Your going cliff diving?" Uncle Edward asks

"No" mom states, just then dad comes in "did you know our daughter is going cliff diving?"

"Yes" nodding his head "it's just the lower cliffs and I trust those boys"

"Why didn't you tell me?" Dad silently gestures for me to leave and I do.

"She's leavings" Uncle Edward states just as I leave the door, I run over to Paul who's in his truck.

"Drive!" I get into his car, he soon leaves just as mom runs out of he house.

"Do I want to know?" He asks

"Let's just say I'll be grounded after today" laughing "so will I finally meet Kim?" I've met Sam's imprint Emily, she's a nice person. Like me she has wolf scars. But I think the whole thing is wrong, I mean Sam was engaged to Emily's cousin but then ended it and after a week got together with Emily. Jared explained imprinting to me and the whole thing is fucked up.

"Yeah" nodding his head "she curious about meeting you, so how is finally being a senior?"

"Okayish" thinking "it's just my family is acting weird"

"Weird? Weirder than how they normally are?" He asks

"Yeah" nodding my head "I don't know what it is"

"What about Bella? Could it be her?" He asks "aren't they or Edward changing her?"

"No" shaking my head "unlike with me, Bella will remain human- which brings my next topic"

"Which is?" Parking his truck, we get out then.

"Do you have any single friends who wouldn't care about fucking a virgin and never calling back again?" I ask

Six

[image] [image]

"Okay, Char" Paul comes over "I know you don't want to die a virgin, but fucking a random guy isn't how you want to remember your first time"

"Are you sure?" I ask "I mean isn't that what most girls my age do?"

"Some" he thinks "I don't know, I'm a guy and I don't know how your female minds work. I mean half the time you girls want babies and the next you want shoes" we walk over to the cliff to see Sam, Emily, Jared and Kim "Emily! Kim! For your first times did you want to randomly fuck some guy or want it to be with someone you cared for?" They look over at us, Emily and Kim are both flustered and flabbergasted by the looks of it.

"Why" Emily asks "do you want to know that?" I take off my top, shoes and pants to show my black bikini.

"I was asking about losing my virginity" they look at me "hi I'm Charlotte" I hold my hand out to the new girl.

"Kim" she shakes me hand "the guys told me a lot about you"

(Kim)

"Good things I hope" she laughs nodding her head "Jared talks about you all the time" She blushes.

"So how are things at home?" Emily asks

"We're throwing a party for Nasty Little Whore" not that she needs one "I don't see why, the girl hates being the center of attention yet she's slept with half of our class behind my Uncle Edward's back. My uncle thinks that the guys are all just thinking of wild fantasies but nope, I even had a video of the Nasty Little Whore with one of the guys but you know what happened" when I showed Uncle

Edward, my first mistake was doing it with no one around. He grabbed me and threw me down the stairs before grabbed my arm and dislocated it. That was when I went down to Sam's house and the pack and elders found out what Uncle Edward does when no one's around and when they find out nothing bad happens to him.

"It's not right" Sam growls "no Em" Emily tries to calm him down but it doesn't help "that vampire physically hurts Charlotte for no reason, the others don't do shit!"

"Can we just forget about it for now?" I ask "we're here to have fun"

"She's right" and that's when Emily jumps off the cliff, Sam goes after her screaming her name.

"Don't" Jared warns "think about doing what Emily did"

"Okay" she says before she jumps off the cliff anyway laughing, Jared curses before following her.

"I'll ask" Paul looks at me as I look down at the others "but are you going to"

"Nope" I jump onto his back "let's go, giddie up horsie"

"Alright" he then jumps and I screech holding onto Paul tightly.

~Time Skip~

"I don't see why I have to be there" I'm in my room drying my hair, everyone is at home as Uncle Edward is here demanding I celebrate Nasty Little Whore's birthday "everyone knows I don't like her"

"Because she's my mate!" If she's your mate why do you have the urge to kill her twenty four seven?

"Why you" Uncle Edward was about to hit me but Aunt Alice gets between us.

"Edward!" She screams "Charlotte doesn't have to come if she doesn't want to!"

"She does!" Uncle Edward screams back "Bella is my mate and those two have to get along!"

"Why?" Mom storms in demanding "leave my daughter alone! The La Push shifters told me and Emmett what you did!"

"Oh?" He laughs "what did I do? What did that little bitch tell them?"

"She showed them her dislocated arm and bruised her ribs!" Mom snarls "I want the truth now! Why the fuck do you hate Charlotte? All her life you've hated her! Why?"

"I don't have to tell you shit" he growls

"Yet you invade our minds all the time" dad comes in "leave now!" Uncle Edward scoffs before leaving "go to bed sweetie, I'm staying here" I nod my head going to sleep.

~Rosalie's POV~

"Do something about him Carlisle!" I scream at Carlisle, right now Edward is with Bella while we have a family meeting about him.

"Now Rosalie" Carlisle calmly states "we don't know for sure if Edward"

"I swear Carlisle I will call up the Volturi right now and risk my daughter and Felix meeting just to get you to fucking do something!" I scream "he is your venom son! Do something before I do!"

~Charlotte's POV~

I can't believe I'm here. After much debate aka Uncle Edward getting whatever the fuck he wants is having me here at Nasty Little Whore's birthday. Like everyone else, I'm dressed up in a black floral crop top with a pink skirt and black wedges.

I am by moms side staying quiet, when Nasty Little Whore comes downstairs or is dragged down by Alice. Uncle Edward glares at me, the only one who notices is mom, dad and Uncle Jasper.

"Thanks" Nasty Little Whore smiles, I don't pay attention since I don't give a fuck about her. But then I notice chaos erupt, Nasty Little Whore is pushed to the wall and mom protects me as Uncle Jasper tries to kill Nasty Little Whore. It's not his fault, he feels everyone's emotions.

Everyone looks at Bella as she bleeds a lot, grandpa goes to her and helps her as Uncle Jasper is led out of the room. I go to follow but mom holds me back "mom" looking at her "it's alright, Uncle Jasper won't hurt me" I leave to find Uncle Jasper outside with everyone around him.

"Charlotte" he warns but I don't care, I wrap my arms around him giving him a hug.

"It's not your fault" I say "everyone was thirsty, especially Uncle Edward with how Nasty Little Whore's blood smells" I bet Uncle Edward is going to find a way to blame me for this, I swear Uncle Edward is a drunk bully most of to nearly all the time.

~Time Skip~

I'm heading downstairs when I see Edward in front of me, his eyes black "this is your fault" he grabs my throat lifting me into the air

"Bella wouldn't have gotten hurt if you just spent some time with her"

"Edward!" I hear mom, next thing I know I'm thrown through the window and land on my side hard. My head hitting the side hard that I black out.

When I come to, I look around to see I'm in someone's bedroom. I'm not at home, looking around I see my luggage here along with my things. Getting up, I try to get out of bed but fall. "Charlotte!" Looking up I see Emily help my up "your awake"

"What happened?" I ask

"Honey" she helps me sit down on the bed "there's something you need to know" she takes my hands and tells me. Apparently one month ago my family left Forks, my mom will come back for me at the end of the year, the only reason I didn't go with was because of Edward, that my parents wanted me to have a normal life so I will be going to La Push High.

"Did" I ask "did my parents leave a note?" She nods her head and hands me the note that's on my purse.

My beautiful baby girl. I'm so sorry I can't tell you this in person but we need to go. Edward can't be near Bella and he got Carlisle to believe that you living with us is a terrible idea. I will stay in touch with you, but I want you to know that no matter what I love you. Also until I get you Sam and Emily will be taking care of you, so don't give them too much trouble.

Love,
Mom

"I hate Bella Swan" crumpling up the paper. Shaking my head, I look at Emily before blushing furiously when my stomach growls loudly.

She laughs "let's get you something to eat" helping me up we head downstairs, once here we see the guys enter looking relieved to see me.

"Your okay!" Paul pulls me to him

"How are you feeling?"

"Hating Bella Swan and murdering Uncle Edward when I'm turned" stating, Emily hands me some muffins. Grabbing one I moan at how good the muffin is "this is amazing!"

"Thanks" she tells me "now what happened at Bella's party? No one said what happened?"

"She got a paper cut" I recite the night "Uncle Edward shoved her into a wall since my Uncle Jasper could feel everyone's emotions, Uncle Edward deciding we needed to leave and now" I wave my hand

[image] [image]

"No one" Sam is driving me to La Push High "would blame you if you wanted to take the next week off" first day of school, except no family. Right now I'm wearing a purple bodysuit with black skinny jeans and black ankle boots with a black leather jacket.

"I need to keep my mind busy" I look out the window "and my mom wanted me to live my life and this is what I'm doing"

"You always say mom" he points out "you barely add dad"

"Dad" I sigh "he's more of a fun dad, nothing more. He does have his serious moments but" shaking my head "here's La Push High"

"The guys will be here and Kim" I nod my head getting out of the truck "I'll see you later" I nod my head again closing the door before heading inside ignoring everyone staring at me.

When I head to the front desk I tell the woman my name "Charlotte Cullen" she hands me my time table and everything.

"Being back the signatures at the end of the day" she then waves someone over "this is Tyler" I look over "he'll help you out" I nod my head.

(Tyler)

"Hi" we shake hands "I'm Tyler"

"Charlotte" we walk out of the office "nice to meet you"

"You too" he takes my time table "oh! Your locker is next to mine" he leads me over to our lockers "so is it true your family up and left you?"

"No" shaking my head "my sister and brother are going to Washington State, they commute from home"

"Yet Sam Uley drove you to school" he hands me my time table.

"My dad asked if Sam could give me a lift" lying

"So it's true" I hear a familiar voice from behind me, looking I see Jacob Black glare at me "a Cullen is here" he sneers my name, the hallway becomes silent as everyone looks at us.

"Leave Jacob" Tyler comes to my side "your just pissed that your whore isn't sucking your dick" I heard Nasty Little Whore went into a coma zombie state.

"It's her brothers fault" he slams my locker shut, Tyler puts me behind him as Jacob looks at me with such malice that I wouldn't be surprised if he tries to kill me "she wouldn't be like that if her brother stayed away"

"My family left because my dad got a job offer in his home town" lying "had nothing to do my brother and as for my brother breaking up with her" not saying her name "was because she fucked nearly every guy in our class and he found out" whispers erupt.

"How do we know you aren't lying?" Jacob demands

"Because I have proof as ask any senior guy in Forks High, they will tell you how they fucked her" Jacob goes to punch me but Jared stops him. I see he, Paul and Kim get here in time before a fight broke out.

"Leave Jacob" Jared warns "now" Jacob gets out of Jared's grasp and scoffs before storming off.

"Hey guys" I wave my hand going to open my locker again.

"Hey Lotte" Kim comes over taking my sheet "ooh we have first hour together"

"Great" sighing relieved "at least I'll know someone in that class" looking at Tyler "thanks for sticking up for me"

"Of course" nodding his head "Jacob Black has been an ass to everyone since your brother started dating Bella Swan"

"Now" looking at Kim "you know why I call her a Dirty Little Whore"

"What?" Tyler laughs "I also have first hour with you, do you mind if I walk you to class? I'd love to hear more about Bella Swan being called a Dirty Little Whore"

"Sure" smiling, grabbing my things "let's go" looking at the others "I'll see you later" they nod their heads. I take Tyler's arm when he offers it to our class.

~Paul's POV~

I glare at Tyler Locke's head, I don't know what but there isn't something right with that guy. "Paul" Jared nudged my side "chill, Char will be fine"

"I don't trust him" making it clear "there isn't something right with that Tyler"

"I'm sure your just paranoid" Kim tells me "I've worked with Tyler on several projects and he's nothing more than a gentleman"

"I don't know"

~Charlotte's POV~

"Okay" looking at my clothes, Emily and Kim are helping me pick out an outfit for my date with Tyler. It's been a few months and like mom said she's been staying in contact, she's been updating me on everything. Grandma and grandpa are in upstate New York, Aunt Alice and Uncle Jasper are in the south with old buddies of Uncle Jasper's, she and dad are on another honeymoon through Europe this time, and Edward is somewhere in Brazil.

"Woah" we look over to see Sam in the doorway looking around "why does it look like your closet exploded?"

"Charlotte has a date" Emily tells him "and she doesn't know what to wear" Sam stares at us and is quiet for a few moments.

"Oh" is all he says when he leaves the room, we laugh. He then comes back in "make sure to use protection"

"Sam!" Emily yells throwing a pillow at him causing him to leave.

"I found something!" Kim declares showing me a long sleeved black top with a black leather zip up skirt and a faux fur sleeveless jacket with high knee black boots.

"Perfect" I smile putting the outfit on, this is my sixth date with Tyler and I'm ready to lose it. I just want to get it over with and no time is perfect, so tonight is the last night I'll be a virgin.

We hear the doorbell and I head down to see Sam and the others in the kitchen waiting for Tyler. When I get to the door I close it before Sam has me invite him in, for most of the dates it consisted of me and Tyler meeting up or something. "Ready?" Tyler asks

"Yup" nodding my head, we head over to his van. Once inside he drives us to an outdoor movie theater, once here we sit in silence before heading to the back. Once here I kiss Tyler.

"Are you sure?" Tyler asks me pulling back

"Yeah" nodding my head, I lean up and kiss him. Tyler pushes me back as we kiss, sliding one hand under my skirt he gets to my thong and rubs me before pushing my thong to the side. When he does he slips a finger into me, moaning in his mouth as he does this I take a breath.

"O" my mouth forms an o just as Tyler adds another finger. Pumping his fingers in and out of me fast before he goes down to lick me. When he does his blows a warm breath against my cunt before licking my clit as he goes back to thrusting his fingers in and out of me.

"Fuck" I breathe when the pressure building in my core bursts and I arch myself, Tyler laps up my cum before he rises and takes his shirt off. I take my jacket and shirt off to reveal my black push up bra. I take my skirt off next when Tyler gets out of his pants and grabs a condom.

"God" he runs a hand over my wolf scar "when they said you were scarred, they weren't kidding"

"Do you really want to talk about my scar?"

"Nope" kissing me, Tyler unwraps the condom and slides it over his cock. When he aligns himself with my entrance he teases me first before thrusting into my slow. I grab his shoulders feeling the sting, tears pool my eyes as Tyler has himself fully in me. It stays still for a moment before he thrusts out then in at a slow and steady pace.

"Faster" I gasp holding onto him as I go at the same pace as him, as we fuck my phone goes off but I ignore it "oh god" Tyler grabs one of my breasts kneading it.

"Fuck" Tyler groans "your so fucking tight" the pressure that's been building in my core soon releases, my chest touches his. Then Tyler releases his load in his condom before pulling out and taking the condom off.

"Round two?" I ask, Tyler laughs

"Round two"

~Bella's POV~

"Right there" I suck off my step father, Phil's cock on the couch. Phil and mom are visiting dad and I, to check up on me. Dad and mom are out in Seattle right now, Phil was left in charge of watching over me. That dumb bitch Charlotte is still in town and has been too much of a coward to show her face, everyone knows she is still here but that she goes to La Push High. Charlotte Cullen has always been and will always be an enigma of mine.

When Phil blows his load into my mouth I swallow it standing up, getting rid of my clothes I stand bare before him. Phil grabs a condom and I take it from him sliding it down his cock before I slide myself down him. Not knowing this would lead to something much worse.

Ten

"So a level ten jackass" I tell Kim "no word"

"None?" She whispers, it's been over a two weeks since me and Tyler had sex for the first time and he's been dodging me. So now he has been demoted from sweet caring guy to total jackass.

"Don't tell the guys" I see Paul and Jared come over "hey guys" closing my locker I look between them, it's the end of the day Friday and Sam told me that Embry call is possibly shifting into a wolf soon. Apparently some red head vampire, Victoria is her name remembering my mom talk about her and her mate that my family aka Edward killed for Nasty Little Whore.

"How are things with Tyler?" Paul asks as Jared and Kim make out "haven't seen him lately"

"Here and there" evading the question "how are things with Embry? Has things happened?"

"Not yet" he tells us

"Oh look" we see Jacob Black come over "if it isn't the biggest whore there is"

"What are you talking about now?" I demand, ever since coming here Jacob Black has had it out for me because of Nasty Little Whore.

"Oh just that I heard you fucked Tyler Locke, that you're spreading your legs for him now too just like Sam Uley and his cult" my face blushes, how would he know about that? Unless...

"First off" making it clear "I am not fucking Sam, Paul or Jared. If you can't see Jared here has a girlfriend who is literally right here" stepping in his face "and Sam he also has a girlfriend, Paul and I are just friends" Jacob scoffs "what are you even doing here? Don't you have some pale ass tasteless girls cunt to be fucking?"

"Jacob" his friends Quil and Embry come over "Enough! We are tired of this"

"What?" Jacob demands

"Going after Charlotte" Quil looks at his friend in the eye "stop bullying her"

"I'm not" Jacob denies

"You are" Embry gestures to me "the only bad thing Charlotte did was almost a year ago by punching Bella Swan after Bella Swan started the fight"

"You two weren't there" Jacob looks between them angry "leave things you don't know alone"

"We were" Quil looks hurt "ever since Bella Swan came back to Washington, you've been a terrible person to be around" he then leaves.

"Quil" Jacob looks hurt calling out to his friend "Embry, come on! You've met Bella"

"And she's a selfish bitch" Embry crossed his arms "Quil is right, ever since Bella Swan came back I don't even recognize the guy I'm friends with" he leaves then Jacob stares hurt before his hurt turns into anger "This is your fault" pointing his finger at me.

"No" Kim comes between us "it isn't" Kim is normally a shy and sweet girl but right now "enough Jacob Black! Stop harassing my friend because we are all getting fucking tired of it! If you want to harass someone, go after that whore that sleep with everyone!" Jacob sputters before leaving.

"He's supposed to be the next alpha?" I ask

"Unfortunately" Jared wraps an around around Kim's waist "that" kissing her neck "was so fucking hot" Kim blushes.

"Where's Tyler?" I ask Paul

"Last I heard he's in the guys locker room changing for football" I walk away then, I'm knowing right now what the fuck is happening.

When I get there I find Tyler kissing some random bitch "now I know why your a jackass" Tyler and the girl jump apart "No continue" I wave my hand "just wished you could have said something" leaving then I stop to see Paul standing there sending death glares at Tyler "Paul" I grab his arm "let's go" Paul let's me drag him outside.

"I'm going to kill him" when we get to his truck, those are the first words Paul utters.

"Don't" I say "it's nothing"

"Did you sleep with him?" Paul asks as we get into the truck, I stay silent. Paul grips the wheel hard before letting go and turning on the truck before driving off.

When we get to the pack house, we get out and head inside. I see Jared and Kim at the table, Kim is feeding Jared grapes. Sitting down I start my homework for my film class. "So" Emily sets down a plate of brownies and Sam comes down the stairs "how was school?"

"Fine" Paul and I say at the same time, when I go to grab a brownie Paul does the same and we stop. I notice the others look between us, I pull my hand back. Paul does the same and we sit in silence.

"So Kim?" Sam asks "Jared? How was school?"

"Jacob Black harassed Charlotte again and my sexy imprint here" Kim blushes and giggles "stood her ground telling Jacob Black to fuck off"

"I'm calling Billy" Sam declares, I look at Sam "it's been months and this needs to stop, when Jacob shifts this will only get worse"

Eleven

"Hi mom" I'm video chatting mom and dad right now "how are things? Are you in Paris?"

"Yeah" mom nods her head "oh baby, it's so beautiful here. The Eiffel Tower, the Cathedral, the shopping" smiling "I wish you were here baby"

"We both know" smirking "that the first thing I'd do is try to steal a bone from the catacombs" dad laughs "what? Not like anyone is using them, plus I'm sure their long time descendants wouldn't care"

"What exactly would you do with the body parts?" Mom asks

"I'd use them as decorations" making it obvious "plus I want to decorate our home for Halloween" one thing about holidays is that I make Halloween so fucking scary. I love that holiday, the idea of scaring children and getting free candy is just so fulfilling.

"How's school?" Mom asks

"Okay" I mutter not looking at them

"What's wrong?" Dad asks

"Can I talk with mom?" I ask dad "alone?" He stays for a few minutes before leaving "mom? Did dad leave?" I hear the door close then "did he?" Mom giggled as I hear dad huff annoyed before leaving.

"Okay he's gone" mom tells me

"He's far away? It's just us?" I ask

"Yes" nodding her head looking worried "what's wrong? Your not pregnant are you?"

"No" shaking my head "it's just" how do I tell her "I had sex for the first time a few weeks ago"

"Really!" She claps her hands "honey this is-" she stops seeing my face "this isn't wonderful I take it?" I shake my head no "what happened?"

"The guy I told you about? Tyler?" She nods her head "we dated for a few months and he told me yesterday that he was only interested in me because he just wanted to fuck me" tears come down my face "I know this shouldn't hurt but" Tyler stopped over by the pack house and explained why he was interested in me, which landed him a black eye by Sam. I swear Sam acts more like my dad that dad.

"It does" mom finishes "just be glad that in a few weeks your graduating early" smiling "that's good right?"

"Yeah" nodding my head "I just can't believe this is happening" closing my eyes "mom?" Opening them "you know how I turned eighteen a couple months ago?" She nods her head "what do you think about me using my money" mom had a bank account opened for me "to have my eggs extracted?"

"You want to" she asks "have your eggs extracted?"

"I looked it up and I can get my eggs frozen" telling her "and I want them frozen so that in who knows how many years I could unfreeze them and"

"I'll fully support you" mom tells me

"Really?" I ask

"Really" she nods her head

~Time Skip~

"Alright" my gynecologist looks at me "we can get the process started soon" writing some stuff down "though can I ask" looking at me "your a young healthy eighteen year old, why do you want to have your eggs frozen now?"

"I feel like I'm going to be one of those people who by the time realizes she has time for a baby, can't because it's too late" explaining via lying "I just want to make sure that when I do have a baby I'll be able to have one biologically before looking towards adoption or anything else" she nods her head.

"Well" putting my file away "the fertility drugs should be ready in a few days, you'll get a call from your local drug store" I leave then "also there will be sperm donor files sent to you in case you wish to have frozen embryos"

"Thank you"

Twelve

"Oh god" I cry as Emily injects more hormones into me, the guys are helping Embry who has now shifted get use to being a wolf. The girls are helping me with my fertility treatments and picking out sperm donors since I have a lot to choose from.

"Let it out" Kim rubs my back "your in a safe place" just then I see the guys come in.

"You" they stop seeing my tear stained face

"Us?" Jared asks, I see Kim and Emily giving them a do not say anything gesture. Just then my phone rings and I see it's from Tyler, I scream in fury before storming up the stairs and throwing myself onto my bed and scream some more into a pillow. Getting up I close (aka slamming the door) lock it and play on high the song Dancing With The Devil by EMO loudly.

~Third Person POV~

The pack watches as Charlotte storms up the stairs before hearing screaming, then slamming of a door making everyone flinch and finally loud music. Kim slaps her boyfriends head "what?" He asks

"You pissed her off" Kim looks around "did you forget that Charlotte is taking fertility drugs making her filter nonexistent"

"Did she ever have a filter?" Jared mutters earning him another slap to the head.

"Where's Embry?" Emily asks, just then Embry comes in hearing the music "hi, you must be Embry" waving her hand.

"Hi" Embry yells over the music "why is there loud music?"

"Charlotte" they all answer but Embry doesn't understand "she's having her eggs extracted" Paul goes upstairs "I'm talking to her"

"Is Charlotte sick?" Embry asks

"No" Sam shakes his head and explains what's happening and what's been happening since Bella Swan's birthday.

"Charlotte!" Paul yells "it's Paul! Can I come in?" Charlotte gets up and opens the door, letting Paul in he sees how upset Charlotte is "music on or off?" She turns down the music not having it blast like before "what's wrong?"

"I miss my family" Charlotte gets on the bed, Paul next to her pulls her to him that Charlotte is laying her head in his chest "not Uncle Edward, but I miss everyone else. I'm so angry with Tyler for what he did and I'm so fucking pissed at her" refusing to say her name, Paul rubs his hand on her back in circles "sorry for snapping"

"You have no filter" Paul hums "it's like with us wolves when we first shift, we can't control our anger"

"I'm betting your grateful for no female shifters" Charlotte laugh at Paul's relieved face.

"If there is ever a female shifter" Paul makes it clear "punch me in the dick so that if I ever have kids there won't be girls"

"That's sexist" Charlotte slaps his chest

"I'm known as the La Push player" Paul defends himself "can you seriously imagine me raising a daughter or a daughter who can shift?"

"Yes" Charlotte laughs "and it's funny" Paul slaps her butt "did you just slap my butt?"

"I don't know" Paul asks "did I?"

"Paul!" Sam and the other wolves hearing the conversation yells "the door stays open! And your hands better be higher than her waist" looking at Jared ordering "go check on them" he nods his head and goes upstairs to find Paul with his hands under his head, Charlotte sleeping on Paul holding him.

"Sh!" Paul places a finger on his lips, they've learned that Charlotte is a light sleeper because of living under the same roof as Edward Cullen. Jared nods his head leaving but not before turning off the music, when he gets downstairs everyone looks at him.

"Charlotte fell asleep" he tells them "on Paul"

"Like what position" Sam asks "are they in?" Just then there's a knock at the door, they look over to see Angela Webber standing there "hi? Can I help you?"

"Hi I'm Angela" she introduces herself looking around, when her eyes land on Embry's his whole body tenses. They stare at each other for a few moments before she looks around at the wide eyes directed at Embry "I'm a friend of Charlotte's, I came to surprise her" Angela has been the only one Charlotte has stayed in touch with.

"Come in" Emily brings her inside "so how do you and Charlotte know each other?"

"School" Angela tells them "we were in the same class before she moved kind of"

"Did you know the Cullens? Her other siblings?" Jared asks

"No" shaking her head "just Charlotte, she was the only nice person"

"What do you mean?" Sam asks thinking that if Angela has any information it would be vital.

"I don't mean to speak ill will but Edward" shaking her head "before you could tell that her family kept the two apart, like the way Edward Cullen would glare at Charlotte was enough that rumors spread"

"What rumors?" Emily asks

"Like he would beat Charlotte up" Angela gave examples "that he forced himself on her or things like that. But none of it was true, maybe the beating up part but nothing else" remembering seeing bruises on Charlotte one time.

Thirteen

~Charlotte's POV<

"Hi Angie" I walk downstairs to see Angela, going over we kiss and I hear a growl pulling back "it's good to see you" we then see Sam pulls Embry outside, why?

"Same" she tells me "did you hear the news about Bella?"

"No" sitting down next to her "what?"

"Bella's pregnant" someone coughs up their drink "it's her stepdads too"

"Did she tell you?" I ask, she nods her head "is it true she basically alienated everyone around her?" I've been hearing stuff about Bella, then I asked about Renee and Renee was the same. Renee was an outsider who refused to interact with anyone in Forks, that she only stayed for Chief Swan's money. That Chief Swan had or had another daughter out there who the money goes to since his father didn't believe Bella was actually his.

"Yeah" she then whispers in my ear "she slept with Mike, Eric and Tyler at the same time a few weeks ago" my eyes widen "Lauren, Jessica and I haven't spoken to her since" pulling back "so how's La Push High?"

"It's okay" I say "better than Forks" to be honest, most of the people at La Push High are nicer than those at Forks High.

"Are you having your eggs frozen?" She asks "small town" reminding me

"Yeah" nodding my head "and I'm not sick, I just want to freeze my eggs in case of anything unexpected since I've learned in the past two years that life can just be surprising"

"True" nodding her head "so who was that guy that left?"

"Sam?" Pail asks, she shakes her head no "oh Embry, why?"

"He's really cute" she says just as the two come in.

"Hi Embry" waving my hand

"Hey Charlotte" he is acting wary around me "nice makeup"

"What?" I ask

"Just that" he nervously speaks "it's been a long time and you look nice right now"

"So every other time I don't look nice?" Getting upset

"No" the guys sigh harshly "I mean yes" he thinks this over "I mean you do look nice it's just I've never said it to you before"

"Alright" nodding my head

"Okay" Kim comes in "Sperm donors!" Jared coughs up his drink "for Charlotte"

"Do you want to help me pick out my future baby daddy?" I ask Angela

"Sure" we take the files

"Have any specifics?" Emily asks

"We'll" Sam grabs the guys "let you girls" waving to that leaves, well not Paul "Paul!"

"I'm curious" he stares coming back over he takes a file, we look at him "your going to need a guys help, make sure the kid of it's a boy won't be soft"

"Fine" waving my hand "okay so specifics" I think "I've always pictured the dad being tall with dark hair and I'm not sure what kind of eyes, no heart diseases or anything close to that"

"Okay" Angela puts a file down "this one has a family history of dementia" for the next few hours we've looked through about twenty sperm donors and haven't found one.

"Why don't you get Paul to fertilize your eggs" Kim jokes, we look at her "what? It'll be cute to see you two co parent"

"I'm not actually using them" I say "until I'm like way older" they understand what I mean "I mean I don't think-Paul?" Looking at him "how would you feel about being the sperm donor?" We all look at him "this is a big thing I'm asking"

"Well" he thinks "I guess I wouldn't really care"

"Really?" Angela asks "are you certain? This is a big thing"

"I know" he grabs a brownie "but to be honest I'm probably the only guy from the choosing here that Char wants, the guys she's looking for in this pile are all blonde or a dirty blonde"

"So that's a yes?" I ask

"Yes" he nods his head, I screech hugging him.

"Found a sperm donor?" Jared asks, we see him and Sam come in "Embry went home"

"I should too" looking at the time Angela gets up "I'll see you later" we kiss goodbye, everyone looks at me.

"What?" I ask

"Did you two ever date?" Sam asks

"No" shaking my head "we just kiss because we do" I think "I mean she has a boyfriend who knows we do this"

"She has a boyfriend?" Kim asks "how serious?"

"I'd have to ask or something since it's been a long time since she talked about him" I say "ooh" clapping my hands looking at Sam and Jared "we found a sperm donor"

"Really?" Jared takes one of the files "so which one is it?"

"Me" both wolves look at Paul "Kim suggested it and now" shrugging his shoulders "I'm going to be Charlotte's baby daddy"

"Are you sure man?" Jared asks "I mean this is big plus Charlotte isn't your imprint" looking at me "no offense"

"None taken" I wave my hand "we even asked him" Jared then laughs "what?"

"I just realized" he laughs "when your going to use these eggs Paul would probably be in his late eighties or dead" tears well in my eyes "oh shit what did I say?" placing my head on Paul's chest.

"Your going to die" I cry into Paul's chest

"What did I say" Sam asks "about poking at the bear?"

Fourteen

"So they froze how many embryos?" Emily asks as we make muffins for the guys, last week Jacob Black shifted and when he saw me and was told the truth about everything he demanded for my head. His dad had to set him straight telling him that I'll be gone in a few months and won't be coming back for a long time, plus he got a very long scolding for what he's been doing to me at school by the elders and the pack. Aka Paul and Jared attacked and beat the shit out of him.

"They froze twelve embryos and the rest are unfertilized" I explain "I know, a lot but they got a lot of eggs"

"Charlotte?" I hear a family bitchy voice, looking over I see Bella Swan who has a baby bump look at me before launching herself into my arms hugging me "your back! Your family-Edward!"

"Get off of me" I remove her arms and Jared pulls her away "why is this bitch here?" Bella looks hurt and flabbergasted when I say this "be glad I'm not calling you something way worse"

"Your family" she repeats "are they here or"

"Whether they are here or not" crossing my arms "is none of your fucking business"

"It is!" She insists, just then Angela comes in "Angela?"

"Bella" Angela looks at her in disgust, walking over she asks lowly "what's she doing here?" A few days ago Embry told her about wolves and that she's his imprint, then about the truth about the supernatural world. I then told her about my family and the truth, she is disgusted by Uncle Edward and how he's been treating me.

"That's what I asked" we laugh

"Muffin?" Emily asks setting them down before grabbing the boys

"save some for your brothers and ladies first, muffin?" She asks Bella.

"Sure" Bella takes one and eats it, well nibbles at it. God is she starving that kid? With how she eats I wouldn't be surprised.

"Leave it to Jacob" Angela says "to find away around Sam's gag order" Bella looks at her shocked "I know Bella, I know everything"

"What-how?" Bella asks

"It's none of your concern" I say to her "about whether or not you have to know something" she glared at me "just because your pregnant doesn't mean I won't beat your ass" the guys laugh.

"Jacob" mutters "didn't tell me anything" even though he's been begging Sam and everyone to let Bella know, saying she deserves to know but Sam made it clear that Bella won't know. I then told Jacob to give it a rest since Bella staying human was why my family left and that my mom is coming back for me when I graduate.

"Alpha's orders" Embry tells her "has to be obeyed whether we want them to or not" smirking "oh and check it" Angela shuts him up by kissing him. We laugh while Bella looks annoyed that she didn't hear what else Embry had to say.

"Check what out?" Bella asks

"None of your fucking concern" Jared snaps "you're a vampire lover, your the reason so many people are dead!" She looks shocked and confused by this "you don't know"

"Victoria" she looks at me terrified "because her mate was killed to save your sorry pregnant ass"

"Victoria?" She stutters "is here? If she's here for me then she's here for you" she waves to me.

"If she's here for me" I make it clear "I will try and calmly stare before she kills me that she should be going after you because Edward killed her mate for you and not my mother who was at home with me" my anger rising "that nothing like this would be happening if you had just fucking died last year!" She starts to cry.

"Didn't I say" Sam comes in and kisses Emily then hugs me "not to have Bella near Charlotte and" he sees Angela and Embry still making out "I'm not even going to ask" we chuckle but Bella.

"Bella!" Jacob runs to her "what's wrong?" He snaps his head at me "what did you do?"

"Nothing" Jared tells him "Bella is just a weak human who shouldn't know about us but no, you just had to make her know!" Paul comes over towards me and hugs me, he knows this is hard. Me seeing Bella and that she's the reason why my family had to leave me, that Uncle Edward had gotten more violent with her around.

"Come on Bella" Jacob leads her out of the pack house, I see Paul wipe tears from my eyes.

"I hate her" saying it after some silence "and I pity that kid for having her as its mother"

"What's happening?" Embry asks, we see Angela on his lap while Embry looks around "Sam? Paul? When did you get in? Where's the blood whore?" We laugh at Embry "what?"

Fifteen

"Horror movie marathon?" I ask the girls, because of Jacob he helped confirm what I told the pack before when they asked about Victoria. My mom knows about it and she says she's on her way home. So I told the elders and the pack, they agreed because she's my mother and knows she was coming but not this early. Now the pack is out making sure Bella is safe because she's pregnant, that'd the only reason. Jacob however got into the bitches head that we care about here when we don't.

So now me and the girls decided to do a movie marathon; it's me, Angela, Kim and Emily. We haven't gotten a movie genre picked out yet "horror movie?" Kim asks "sure"

"I've got some movies" she brings out her movies which are the entire Saw series, we look at her "my nephew and cousin loves horror movies so" she brings out more movies"

"Alright" I look around "Angela? Kim? Want to pick the first one since I suggested the genre and Emily provided the movies?"

"Sure" they look around before picking out When a Stranger Calls, both the 1979 and 2006 version. As we are watching the beginning of the 2006 version we scream hear the front door slam open, seeing it's the guys we calm down but they look around for the danger. When they don't see any danger they look at us then the movie pile.

"What's going on?" Sam asks

"Horror movie marathon" we say at the same time before laughing at how we said it in unison.

"Come" I wave my hand "join us" the guys come over, since I was on the couch with Angela-Paul and Embry join us. Paul sets me in his lap and Embry wraps an arm around Angela's shoulder. Kim is in am arm chair with Jared and Sam is in the recliner with Emily.

Emily plays the movie and we watch.

As the movie ends the door slams open, Paul tightens his grip on me when we see Jacob standing there in fury. His gaze is on mine "you" he snarls

"Stay back" Sam orders getting up, he and Jared put themselves between me and Jacob. Paul and Embry stand too "what's going on?"

"Bella left" I am so confused

"How is that Charlotte's fault?" Jared asks "so the leech lover left"

"She left because her uncle is getting himself killed!" He screams at me

"What? My Uncle Jasper!" Panic runs through my mind.

"What?" He asks "no, that leech she loves"

"My Uncle Edward?" I ask, he nods his head "whatever"

"Whatever!" He screams "Bella is going to the vampire government!"

"And she'll be killed after she has that baby" I say "vampires may be one thing but only true sadistic vampires kill pregnant women and children"

"So I should be fine knowing Bella's baby will survive but she won't?" Destroying a chair "do something!"

"What am I supposed to do?" I ask "the vampire world has three well four important laws. The first and most important is not to let humans know and if they know either kill or turn them" crossing my arms "unlike Bella my mom is going to turn me, so unless if Bella meets her mate" doubting that will happen "she's going to die"

"She can't!" He screams "I love her!"

"They won't care"

"Then go and make them see reason!" He yells "make them"

"Oh my god!" Scoffing "how many times do I have to say this, Bella Swan is going to die because she doesn't belong in this world" his face turns red "the only reason Bella found out was because my uncle couldn't read her mind and was convinced that she was his mate. Bella Swan is a blood singer, her blood is so savoring to smell that any vampire would want to kill her"

"Then she should be terrified!" He yells

"She isn't because the only thing she fears is growing old!" I snap "like everyone here is saying Bella Swan doesn't love you"

"Then why are you"

"Enough!" We hear my moms voice, moving I see her.

"Mom!" I run to her and she hugs me "your back!"

"I am baby" kissing my head, I see mom glare at Jacob "now listen here dog, my daughter is correct" walking to him "Bella Swan only wants immortality and nothing else"

"Your on our land" he seethes before smirking "the treaty is now"

"It's not void!" Sam yells "Rosalie Cullen has been given permission to come onto La Push because her daughter is here! I am sick of hearing Bella this and Bella that from you" using his alpha voice "Jacob Black you are not allowed to go near Bella Swan without one of us present, if you do I shall have the Elders interfere and strip you of your potential alpha status since it is clear if you are ever an alpha you will do more harm then good"

"Sam!" Jacob complains "you can't"

"I can and I did" firmly stating, Jacob then storms out slamming the door but not before glaring at us "I need to know" looking at mom "are the rest of the Cullens returning?"

"Yes" nodding her head "I told them about Victoria, we are going to take care of her like my coven should have done months ago"

"Why didn't you?" Jared asks

"Because of Edward" she sneers her name "I know this is a lot" looking at Sam "but it isn't safe for Lotte to live with us if Edward comes back"

"She is more than welcome here" Emily comes over.

"But first" looking at me "the others have missed you"

Sixteen

"Your kidding?" I ask mom "he's living?" Mom and I are in my old room talking about the Volturi keeping Uncle Edward alive "I hate the Volturi" my mind is certain "if there was any justice he would be killed!"

"Now Charlotte" grandpa comes in "that isn't right, he's your uncle"

"Who hates me for no fucking reason" I cry "you all let him do whatever he wants! I'm done!" Storming out I go to La Push, dad grabs me "let me go!"

"Charlotte" dad calmly stated "Edward can change"

"He almost killed me after Bella's birthday" I say "she's pregnant, who is he going to blame? Me!" Try to get out "let me go!"

"No" grandpa firmly stated "Bella is family, just like you" I scoff "do not give me that young lady"

"You all let him do whatever he wants" I cry "if there was any justice in the world then he'd be dead!" Just then we hear growls, looking over we see Sam and the others "Sam!"

"This doesn't concern you" dad growls at them "leave, this is a family matter"

"No it isn't" getting out finally I run to the wolves "you let Edward do whatever the fuck he wants and nothing happens to him! Whenever he is pissed he takes his anger out on me! I refuse to live in this house any longer! If I'm changed then fine, but I will leave" getting on Sam's back "as of this moment I'm no longer a Cullen!" Mom and grandma gasp. Holding onto Sam he takes me away from here, when we get to the pack house I get off of Sam's back tears come down my face.

I walk to the steps and sit down crying, Edward should have died. If there was any justice in the world he would be dead. Then I feel warm arms around me holding me, I see it's Sam. I lean in his chest "they didn't kill him" I cry "they let him go"

"The vampire government let him go?" Sam asks, I nod my head "why?"

"According to my mom" wiping my tears "my aunt had a vision that Bella will be a vampire, because of that Edward was let off the hook"

"Really?" Jared sits beside me "their letting him live?"

"It's because he can read minds" looking down "Aro a king of the vampire world is very power hungry, if he can get my Aunt Alice it Edward then he doesn't care what happens. Aro had the power to see everyone's thoughts from the past or any near future thoughts they'd have through one touch"

"Didn't you say there were three?" Paul asks, I nod my head "the other two?"

"Marcus he's the depressed king because Aro had another vampire convince Marcus to kill his mate who also happened to be Aro's sister"

"Why?" Embry asks

"To prove his loyalty, Aro wouldn't care about you because like I said" closing my eyes "all he wants his power. Marcus can also see bonds between a person, Aro didn't want to give that up"

"The third" Sam asks

"Caius, he's just a very angry vampire" thinking "blonde with a resting bitch face, he doesn't have any powers"

"Mates?" Paul asks

"Caius and Aro both have mates" groaning "I don't remember their names but they are like Caius, but they are locked away most of the time"

"Their kept as prisoners" Sam state, my eyes drooping for a bit.

"Correct" closing my eyes I soon let sleep consume me.

~Sam's POV~

"Sam" Emily sees my carry a sleeping Charlotte back up to her room, when she's tucked in bed I head downstairs "the Cullens want to talk" she hands the phone to me.

"Hello" putting the phone to my ear

"Where's my daughter?" Rosalie Cullen demands

"Asleep" crossing my arms "when Charlotte had finished high school you will turn her"

"Don't" he warns "tell me when I need to turn my daughter"

"You have an unstable vampire member in your coven who repeatedly physically harms your daughter" remembering the one time I saw her with bruises "you don't do anything about that vampire, as of now Charlotte will remain on La Push for the rest of the school year"

"She's" Rosalie growls

"She's on La Push and if anyone tries to get her the treaty will be null and void" hanging up then, I put the phone away "yes?" Knowing the pack.

"That was Sue" I see Jared put his phone away "Seth and Leah shifted"

"Leah?" I ask

"Leah" Jared confirms, I head out of the house. Why can't I get one day of fucking piece?

Seventeen

~Charlotte's POV~

"So your vampire family" Leah asks me "let's one of their coven members physically hurt you because he can and they don't do anything about it? Anything else?" For the past few days, Leah and I have been getting along. It's been a month since seeing my family, Sam made it clear that I'm graduating from La Push High and if my family tried anything bad things will happen.

"Correct" Leah and I are on our backs staring up into the stars "also I had my eggs extracted recently and twelve of them were fertilized while the others weren't"

"The guys mentioned it" she smirks "Paul got a lot of grief from the others about donating his sperm"

"I'm wondering if I'll have any girls" looking at Leah "if I do, would they be a shifter like you?" Leah laughs "but yeah, the only good thing is that I have my own account"

"That's good" she turns around so her back is to the sky while her front is on the ground "but real talk, what are your feelings on becoming a vampire. I mean it's a given that you are turned and we all have our own opinions that shouldn't affect yours"

"But you want to know what I feel?" She nods her head "I want to be turned, but I have a bad feeling about being turned soon"

"Why?" Confused

"There are the Seattle attacks that consist with someone creating a newborn army" she looks more confused "newborn vampires are volatile but also attack random people, these vampires aren't being trained or disciplined so the Volturi or their elite guard will get in the middle of it. I don't want to be confused for a newborn there so I don't die"

"Have you seen your family recently?" She asks

"No" shaking my head "and I don't intend to until after graduation"

~Rosalie's POV~

I look out the window into the forest where it leads to La Push, for the past month Lotte hasn't talked to any of us. We try, we do but she refuses to talk to us. Edward has been oblivious and only focused on that blood whore of his.

"Rose" Emmett comes up behind me grabbing my shoulders but I shrug him off "she'll be back, when she needs to be turned and learn how to feed"

"After that" whispering "she'll leave" looking at him "Carlisle did nothing to keep Edward in line" dry tears are around my eyes "now our baby doesn't want to see us"

"You don't know that" he wraps his arms around me pulling me into his embrace.

"I know my daughter" looking down "when she's made up her mind, she's made it up"

Eighteen

"Are you excited?" Emily jumps up and down pulling me through the supermarket for food for my graduation barbecue, I didn't want some fancy ass party Alice was throwing. Yeah, I didn't call her aunt because no Cullen is my family anymore. I've even decided to change my last name, I don't know to what but I'll do it before I'm turned.

"I mean I guess?" I ask "sorry, the only parties I've ever known are the fancy ass parties Alice always insists on throwing. She makes it so extravagant that we need to dress up like it's a formal" thinking "I think Alice does what she does because deep down their the parties she wants, she never really considers what anyone else wants"

"Well" wrapping her arm around my shoulders "we're doing what you want, now what exactly did you always wish for you graduation? Besides being turned" she whispers that part out.

I think it over "I guess one thing I've always wanted to do before I am turned for graduate was her my hair done"

"That's it?" Disbelief in her voice

"I was also thinking of getting a boob job" looking down at my tits "and getting a butt job too, like add some junk in my flat trunk" like seriously I have some junk but nothing really seems to work so I have a fall ass along with small tits. I don't know? I'm like Shaggy in Scooby Doo where it doesn't matter how much I eat I don't gain any weight so I'm a thin person with barely any tits or ass.

"Oh Charlotte" Emily had us stop "just because you barely have anything there doesn't mean"

"Emily" cutting her off "no offense but you don't get it, not really. My ass isn't like yours, I want to have jeans that are perfect to fit in and not baggy. My tits" grabbing them not caring who is seeing "I just want to at least be one cup size bigger, I either do that by this or getting pregnant and I'm not putting my body through that" looking down "my family will even insist I come home to be there and help but really it's so my mom, aunt and grandma can experience having a pregnancy via through me"

"I understand" she says after a minute

"I also always wanted to get a tattoo" her eyes widen "something I want to do" she nods her head.

"Would your family"

"Nope" shaking my head

"Let's get that tattoo" she tells me as we go to the checkout lane "though I can't be there since the food"

"We don't have to do this today" I tell her "just before I'm turned, I'm actually going to Seattle in a few days to speak to a plastic surgeon about the butt and boob implants"

"You know"

"I'll be safe" I tell her "the hospital I'm going to is in Seattle yes" nodding my head "but the parking lot is out in the open, I'm going during the day and not at night"

"Alright" she sighs "just be careful"

"Aren't I always?"

~Time Skip~

"What" Jared asks me "is Bella Swan doing here?"

"What?" Looking around confused before I see Bella with Jacob Black "you've got to be fucking kidding me"

"Jacob Black" Sam goes toward the pair "I thought I made it clear, Bella Swan isn't invited to this barbecue" Jacob looks pissed while Bella upset that she isn't wanted here. Tough shit.

"Sam" Jacob complains "Bella is here because she just wants to talk and"

"No" Emily comes over "I'm sorry Bella but you are not welcome here, now leave"

"No" Jacob stands firm "Bella can stay"

"No" the pack soon get involved, I sigh looking down. I wanted this to be a nice event, not some big ruckus. Bella Swan may love the attention but I do not.

"Hey" I look over at Leah "I have a surprise for you"

"What?" I ask confused when she leads me away from the party or barbecue.

"Do you remember how you wanted to get your nipples pierced?" She asks

"Yeah" nodding my head

"Well before I became a wolf" she says "I worked in a tattoo parlor and learned how to pierce people and got certified"

"Really?" I did not picture Leah working in a tattoo parlor.

"Yeah" nodding her head "do you still want that piercing?"

"Um" thinking "do you think instead I could have my belly button pierced?"

"Sure" she shifts and I get on her back, soon she takes me to her house and once there I get off her back and she shifts back. When she does we head inside and go to her room, once there she has me take off my shirt "stay standing for a bit" she cleans with a wipe my belly button before patting it dry. She then grabs a marker and puts a dot on me, after that she has me lay down.

I have my eyes closed, okay this won't hurt "deep breath in" Leah instructs and I do that "then out" opening my eyes I see she uses a clamp "one more time" and when I do she uses the needle and had a cork to catch the needle when I'm pierced.

"Alright" she grabs a piece of jewelry "now by any chance have you seen those piecing videos of after care?" I nod my head yes "good" she grabs a piece of paper "here, this will help with after care in case you forget a step" she then cleans my belly again but uses a spray this time.

"Thanks Leah" I get up and she hands me my shirt, once I have it on Leah and I make our way back to the barbecue.

Nineteen

I walk back to my car after getting a dress, when I'm changed I want to wake up in those beautiful dress. Luckily I already had my appointment with the plastic surgeon to discuss my implants.

As I walk I suddenly bump into someone, the person luckily caught me before I fell on my ass. I look up and my breath catches when I see a tall vampire, a vampire bigger than dad with dark hair and huge muscles hold me. I then see the necklace he's wearing and it's the Volturi crest.

"Thanks" I say "cool contacts"

The vampire frowns down at me "why lie?" He asks, moving a strand of hair out of my face and behind my ear.

"What?"

"Lie" repeating himself "you know what I am and who I am"

"I do?" I know he's with the Volturi but I don't know him know him. Or do I?

"I'm your mate" and just like that I fall in unconscious.

~Felix's POV~

For the past month I've been on edge, ever since learning a month ago about my mate all I've wanted to do is go get her. The fury I've felt has been the same that no one has been able to calm me down, when they tried I almost destroyed the person.

Flashback

I watch as Edward Cullen stomps out of the throne room like the child he is. That boy is given too much freedom, I wouldn't be surprised if he he thought revealing our kind was the right thing because he wants to and not live a "lie"

"Felix" Aro motions me forward, I walk to the center and bow before them.

"Master" standing to look at them "How may I be of service?"

"Go to Forks" he thinks "actually, Demetri" waving him over, Demetri comes over and bows before standing.

"Master" he speaks "how might I be of service?"

"Charlotte Cullen" he tells Demetri "do you have a tenor on her?" Demetri nods his head after a moment "excellent, you two"

"Aro" Caius cuts Aro off "why do these two need to get a Cullen girl? Is she human?"

"Yes" Aro says but is cut off by Caius

"Then they go kill her!"

"Actually"

"Actually?" Caius cuts him off again "don't tell me, your letting her live because of your dumb friendship with the bunny leader"

"Caius" Aro sighs "I was going to have Felic guess but Charlotte Cullen is his mate" everything in me freezes, mate. My mate, the one I've been searching for for over hundreds of years "she's the adoptive daughter of Rosalie Cullen"

"Why does Felix need Demetri?" Marcus asks "if you know where the girl is"

Aro curses under his breath "you two are spoiling my big revelation" looking between the two "you know that right?" Looking at me "since I can't get a word in today, your mate is being guarded by wolf shifters who are most likely messing with her natural scent" waving to Demetri "that's why you need Demetri"

"Wolf shifters!" Caius screams "wolf fucking shifters!" He gets up and leaves.

"Where are you going?" Aro calls out as we watch him slam the door open on his way out.

"To my happy place!" He screams "ATHENADORA!"

Aro shakes his head and looks at me "another thing you need to know" I look at him "Edward Cullen physically harms your mate" rage builds in me then "there's a chance she will stay be wary of you" but I don't listen, my need to kill Edward is too great. Hearing how my mate is physically harmed by that vampire brings such a rage that I feel something in me start but I don't know what. I've felt it a few times in the past but not to this degree.

~Time Skip~

"Wait!" Alice Cullen screams "don't kill him!"

"He physically harms my mate" growling at her, Edward nearly exposed out kind and now me and him fought to kill his dumbass blood singer who's blood smells so repulsive if I were human I'd vomit. My hand is about to rip his head off when Alice stops me.

"I know" she whispers "but Charlotte will hate you if you kill her uncle" I narrow my eyes on the clairvoyant "she will reject the bond if you kill Edward" even though Aro said they are free to go I am not letting this vampire go that easily.

"Tread carefully Alice Cullen" Marcus warns "Felix knows from Aro that Edward harms his mate for no reason" the rage from before comes back, it's like my soul is telling me that my mate wouldn't care if Edward Cullen dies "so you better be certain"

She gulps nodding her head "I am"

"Felix" Aro places a hand on my arm in a fatherly way "let him go, when you get your mate you can find out from her" I nod my head and let Edward go, but not before ripping his arms off and tossing them to Alice. Edward screams in pain and I smile at that pain.

Flashback Ends

"Don't worry" I hold my mate close, the strong repulsive smell of dog on her "I won't ever let anyone harm you ever again" kissing her forehead, I grab her purse and bag before running back to the penthouse we are airbnbing. Once there I sense no one but me is here, so I take her up to my room and lie her down on the bed and set her things on an armchair nearby.

Twenty

~Third Person POV~

Felix realizes his mate will be hungry so he puts brown contacts on his eyes then goes to get her some food. As he leaves he hears her phone go off and when it does he turns the phone off before leaving, letting his mate rest.

When Jane, Alec and Demetri return to the penthouse they smell the terrible smell of a wet dog that hasn't been given a bath in months and was spending its time in the sewers. They then hear a heartbeat "did Felix bring the most awful thing ever back?" Jane had her nose covered, though it does little to help with the smell.

"Let's see" Demetri goes to Felix's room first, when he does he senses the tenor from that girl Charlotte Cullen he was supposed to have tracked nearly a month ago "no way" he sees Charlotte sleeping in the bed, walking closely he lightly pokes the girl before whispering the twins "it's Felix's mate!"

"What?" Alec like his sister had his nose covered "ugh! Why does she smell so fucking awful?"

"Remember what Aro said" Jane comes back with an air refresher that smells like pumpkins "the girl has been under the care of a pack of wolf shifters for the past year"

"Don't those mutts know how to bathe?" Alec wonders, but he and Demetri see Jane isn't here "where did Jane go?" Just then said vampiress comes in with a makeup kit and nail supplies.

Demetri and Alec give her a look as she goes to Charlotte "what?" She asks "not like" when she takes Charlotte's hand, Charlotte bolts up and sees the three vampires and panics.

~Charlotte's POV~

I look around to see I'm in an unknown room with three Volturi members. Oh shit! Oh shit! Not good, not good at all. "Hey" the vampire on the left with dirty blonde hair had me look at him "we aren't going to hurt you"

"How do I know that?" Staying on guard, but some part of my soul is telling me that these vampires won't hurt me.

"Because your our friends mate" he says "I'm Demetri, this is Jane" waving to Jane who takes my hand and takes out some nail polish and holds it to my hand before choosing a different color "and this is Alec" I look at the dark haired teenager with dark hair "and you are?"

"Charlotte"

"Nice to meet you" Jane speaks "which color goes best with you?"

"Black" Jane looks through her things and pulls out thirteen different shades of black.

"Sister?" Alec asks "how many colors of black could there be?"

"You'd be surprised" she looks at me "okay so I have licorice" the guys snicker "what?"

"That" Demetri smiles "can't actually be a color"

"It is" holding it to him "see" they look and nod their heads "now which color of black do you like?"

"The black onyx looks good" she nods her head and gives me a manicure.

"Um" looking around "where am I?"

"Seattle" Demetri gets comfortable beside me, like Paul this guy reminds me of "Felix is out somewhere"

"So" Alec sits on the couch by the foot of the bed "why do you smell like wolf shifter more than vampire?" The other two give him a look "I'm curious"

"I left the Cullens" whispering, they look my way.

"Why?" Jane grabs a cuticle pusher

"Because you let Edward live" she stops what she's doing to stare at me.

"Your Aunt Alice" she says "said you'd reject Felix if he killed Edward"

"What?" Exclaiming flabbergasted, looking at the other two "I hate Edward, I wouldn't give a shit if he died"

"Really?" I hear a new voice, looking I see the vampire who is my mate stare at me with some fried chicken.

Update

So sorry everyone, I was focused on a few other things that I didn't realize I put down the wrong chapter for the last two. So if anyone has any questions about where chapter nineteen is I fixed it and I'm working on chapter twenty one.

Twenty-One

"Yeah" nodding my head "I was very much hoping your kings would kill him" they stare at me. Jane soon goes back to doing my nails "how long have I been asleep?"

"A few hours" the new vampire says, Felix. I remember mom telling me about the Volturi guards names, well the elite guard.

"Where's my phone?" I have a feeling a few people will go batshit crazy if I don't answer soon.

"Here" Felix hands it to me, when our fingertips brush each other I feel a spark. Looking at him, I feel my soul call out to his.

"Um" I blush looking down "thanks" whispering, I see my phone is off and I turn it on. When I do I unlock my phone only to have my mom call me, I better answer before she looses it. "Hi mom"

"Oh thank god!" She exclaims "Alice you are lucky she answered me! Baby, where are you?"

"Out" not wanting to tell her anything "why?"

"Sam and Emily called saying you haven't been back yet and then they said you were in Seattle" I then realize, grabbing my bag I get the disinfectant and start to clean my belly button piercing "Charlotte! Are you listening?"

"Yeah"

"What did I just say?"

"People worried and whatnot" I hear the vampires in the room chuckle.

"Who else is there?" She suspiciously asks

"I'm getting my nails done mom" technically not a lie.

"Why were you in Seattle?" She asks

"For a boob and butt job" I hear someone cough "I want some junk in my trunk and go up one cup size" having to explain what I said to Emily "and it's either plastic surgeon or getting knocked up"

"Honey" she says "if someone is pressuring you"

"No one is pressuring me mom" I quickly cut her off "I've been thinking about this for a while and I asked Uncle Jasper about things being frozen"

"Why not your grandpa?"

"It's embarrassing?" I ask "I don't know, I feel like I can trust Uncle Jasper more. He is the one who messes with Edward's emotions whenever he beats me up" there's silence when I mutter this.

"Honey" she says after a moment "come home"

"No" hanging up, I know the conversation will go on and on. I'm not bothering with that. Putting my phone down I feel everyone's gazes on me, well Felix and Alec isn't here "where did"

"Felix ran out of the room to kill Edward" Jane explains "Alec went to stop him" I'm confused "the newborn army is after your family, Aro wants your family to clean up their mess before we get involved" huh, that sounds reasonable.

"So it's true" Demetri asks "that Edward beats you up?"

"Started when I was four" whispering "I don't even know why he does what he does" wiping a stray tear "god I am hating these left over hormones" my doctor says it's normal for the fertility drugs to still affect my emotions, my body is just trying to get back to its regular cycle.

"Left over hormones?" He asks

"I had my eggs extracted" explaining "about a dozen embryos and the rest are unfertilized" shrugging my shoulders "figured later on in life if I want kids the option is there"

"So are you going to be feeding from animals?" Jane asks

"No" shaking my head "a guess a reason Edward doesn't like me is because I don't like how they kill animals while there are so many humans in the world"

"So the plastic surgery" I see Felix come in "when were you thinking of doing this?"

"I found out that the army is coming to Forks in a few days, so I have it scheduled for tomorrow" nodding my head "I'm not getting too big of a surgery, I just want to fit into some jeans without worrying about them not fitting-I basically don't want to die as a twig"

"You aren't a twig" Felix tells me "you have an amazing body" I blush smiling at this.

"Thanks"

"Out of all the Cullens" Alec asks "which vampires would you not want to see die?" I think about that.

"My mom and Uncle Jasper"

"Why?" Jane asks "I mean your mom I get but what about her mate"

"Dad he's more of a fun uncle" thinking about it "Uncle Jasper has acted more of a supportive and overprotective dad that my moms mate"

"Who are Sam and Emily?" Felix asks, I see jealousy brew in his eyes.

"Their the couple I stayed with" nodding my head "Sam acts a lot like a second dad, Emily is the pack mother really"

"How did you get that scar?" Alec points to my chest.

"A wolf shifter did this" not looking at anyone "apparently it was a newly shifted wolf, dangerous to be around" I don't want Paul to get hurt.

Twenty-Two

[image]

"Done" Jane smiles, I look at my nails and smile "what do you think?"

"Their great" looking at them

"Are you hungry?" Felix asks and my stomach rumbles, I blush from embarrassment now. The others leave after a moment and Felix stays, he sits in the chair next to the bed as he watches me eat. If I were anyone else that probably didn't grow up with vampires, this would feel weird.

"Thanks" I say after a moment "for the fried chicken"

"Your welcome" I eat another leg "so if I had killed Edward, you wouldn't have rejected me?"

"No" shaking my head "I don't care for Edward Cullen"

"When is your plastic surgery?" He asks

"Like I said tomorrow but I'm the morning" nodding my head "do you want to come?" Stupid question "like after when I'm recovering?" Why did I ask that? Oh my god! Could I be any more embarrassing?

"Sure" nodding his head

"Why did Aro and the kings let Edward go?" I need to know, these four are so different from what my family have told me.

"I was going to have killed Edward" he tells me "Aro let Bella go because Alice said she'd be turned so never specified when, so another reason we are here is to check up on that" so there was more to the story "I however was going to have killed Edward but your aunt stopped me saying if I killed him you'd reject me, I didn't want to risk that"

"I never would have rejected you" taking his face to look at me "my mom, Uncle Jasper, Tanya, Eleazar and Carmen have told me how amazing it is to have your mate-I'm not rejecting you" Felix then presses his lips to mine, I'm taken off guard for a moment before I react by kissing him back.

I wrap one of my arms around Felix's neck, my other hand on his face still. Felix's hands are on my hips, pulling back for some air I stare at me mate smiling. I then go to kiss him again, this time out kiss is faster and more passionate.

Pushing my so my back is on the bed, Felix hovers over me between my legs. My phone soon goes off but we ignore it, Felix pulls back and takes off his shirt while I cut up to pull my shift over my head. But our moment is interrupted when there's a knock at the door "what?" Felix barks "Emmett and Rosalie Cullen are here" I groan falling back on the bed, of course my parents have to cock block me against me mate. Putting my shirt on, I get out of bed along with Felix and go to the door.

Opening it I see an annoyed Jane, she leads us downstairs to not only where my parents are but also Carlisle and Edward. I have to hold Felix back when he goes to kill Edward "later" I whisper in his ear "army first remember?" He nods his head, keeping an arm around me.

"Oh" mom sighs relieved and runs to me pulling me into a hug "we're going home" she tries to pull me away but Felix keeps his grip on me.

"Take my mate Rosalie Cullen and I will dismember you" Felix threatens

Dad comes up behind mom "do not threaten my mate" he warns

"Don't take his" Jane is beside us

"Mom" she looks at me "why are you here? How did you find me?"

"We had Alice look for you in one of her visions" Carlisle tells me

"We've come to bring you home" she repeats "you need to be changed soon and"

"I will change my mate" My toes curl hearing Felix's voice, I don't know why but my soul is just singing to his.

"No" Edward gets in this now "she'll lean how to feed properly" just like that he falls down in pain, I see Jane look at him pissed.

"Leave Carlisle Cullen" Demetri comes in front of me with his arms crossed "you and your coven aren't welcome here"

"I'm not leaving without my daughter" mom makes it clear, her eyes black with anger.

"Leave with my mate" Felix's grip on me tightens but it doesn't hurt "and you'll regret it"

"I'm staying" I finally speak "leave mom" she looks hurt hearing this "please"

"Rose" Carlisle goes to her "if Charlotte wants to come back, she'll always have a place in our coven" they soon leave, I hold onto Felix afraid this is a trick and they might take him. Felix does the same, it's like our souls know what the other wants.

Twenty-Three

"Okay Dr. Grey" I see Dr. Mark Sloan with two interns, a woman named Dr. Grey and a guy named Dr. Avery. (Yes, greys anatomy)

"Charlotte Cullen, age eighteen" she looks at me shocked "eighteen?" Dr. Avery then takes my chart from her.

"She's here for a augmentation mammoplasty and a gluteal augmentation" Dr. Avery speaks

"That's right" nodding my head, I see Dr. Grey is worried. Probably my age.

"Okay, Charlotte" Dr. Sloan sits in a stool and comes over with a machine "this machine will show us a 3D image of what you should expect your breasts and gluteus to look after the implant" I see my ass on the screen "first your ass, then your breasts and we'll put them together in full scale"

"Okay" thinking "could you bring it up a couple points?" He does that "that's it"

"That's it?" Dr. Avery whispers

"I am not one for a huge ass" looking at the two "I just want to be able to fit into jeans" looking at Dr. Sloan "okay, now my tits" Dr. Sloan nods his head and we soon see my tits on the screen "a couple points" he does that, my breasts are a normal a size and I want a bit bigger than that "okay, a couple more. I want my boobs to be a c size. Not too big for me but big" he does that and I think "can we put the whole thing one full view" he does that and I smile "I love it"

"Alright" he nods his head

~ Lexi's POV~

"She's eighteen!" I stress to Mark and Jackson "should she even be making a decision like this so young?"

"I had someone from psych come down" Mark puts away a chart "he told me that she was perfectly stable, she doesn't even have a boyfriend"

"Lexi" Jackson says as we head into the prep room, we see two really hot pale guys standing there. One who looks to be about seven feet tall and a dirty blonde, when I look at him I feel something in me snap. Jackson nudges my shoulder and I get out of my trance.

"Hey" Charlotte waves her hand "Dr. Sloan this is Felix and Demetri" they wave their hands "Felix is my new boyfriend"

"Well I'm guessing your going to love your girlfriend getting a new body" Mark speaks

"I'm fine with how her body is right now" Felix tells us, looking at Charlotte with love and devotion that I've only ever seen with my sister and her husband "but it's her body and I support whatever decision she makes"

"Wow" they look at me "sorry but the way you said you'd support her, not many guys now do that"

~Time Skip~

"Hi" I jump seeing that Demetri guy beside me "I'm Demetri"

"Lexi" we shake hands "nice to meet you"

"You too" he nods his head "your really gorgeous" I blush "are you free later today?"

"Are you asking me out?" Wow he's so blunt, very different from anyone else I've ever dated.

"Would it be bad if I am?" He asks

"No" shaking my head "and I'm free later" putting the chart away "maybe after my shift we can go to Joe's? It's this bar near the hospital, if you want"

"I'd like that" nodding his head before kissing my cheek "till later il mio bellissimo chirurgo" he walks away then. I blush and go to find Meredith, when I find her I see she's in the resident's lounge.

"Mer, you won't believe what just happened" I then see she's with Christina, April, Jackson and Alex "oh, I didn't realize" two of my ex's were in here.

"Don't stand there Little Grey" Alex waves his hand "what?"

"I was just asked out by the most gorgeous guy" telling my sister "like he is hotter than Mark"

"Really?" Christina asks, they are all interested "someone's more hotter than McSteamy?"

"Yeah" nodding my head "we're getting drinks later today"

"What's his name?" April asks

"Demetri"

"Our patients boyfriends brother?" Jackson laughs "your going out with him?"

"Lexie" Meredith scolds

"He's not the patient" I defend myself "I don't know what but there's something about Demetri that makes me want to have all his babies" Alex coughs in his drink.

"How long have you known the guy?" Meredith asks

"Two minutes" they all give me judgemental looks "oh" I wave my hand and go off. When it's time for the surgery, I go to the room and see Felix and Charlotte kissing like there's no tomorrow.

"It's alright" I see Demetri in a chair reading "let me guess, it's time for the surgery"

"Yeah" nodding my head

Demetri gets up and hits Felix over the head, he then whispers something when I hear a growl. A growl? Soon the two leave
"surgery time?" Charlotte asks

Twenty-Four

~Lexi's POV~

I laugh as me and Demetri are at a table in Joe's "so" Demetri asks "how long are those four going to stare?" He points to Christina, Meredith, Jackson and April.

"Oh" nodding my head "the dirty blonde" I say "she's my sister and the others are friends of mine"

"Oh" nodding his head

"Why are they staring?" He asks

"Because this is kind of my first time out in a long time" muttering before saying "no reason"

"Alright" he nods his head "so what's your field?" I look confused "in medicine? General? Plastics?"

"Neuro" nodding my head "I'm studying under my sisters husband"

"No offense" he twirls the straw of his drink, which he's barely even touched "but this hospital is very complicated with the relationships"

"You have no idea"

~Charlotte's POV~

"We have to go" Felix tells me, it's been a couple days and I've been kept in the hospital. Dr. Sloan wants to make sure there's nothing too bad after surgery, especially since before hand I recently got my belly button pierced. I honestly don't know why I needed to stay because of that.

"Do you have to?" I ask taking his hand "I'd rather you be here with me"

"Me too" sighing shaking his head "but we need to see if your family took care of the problem"

"Sometimes I hate my family" muttering

~Felix's POV~

I stand on the battlefield where the Cullens all are, looking around I smell the stench of wolf in the air. All the Cullens including that dumb blood whore is here, Edward holds the bitch close to him. They are trying to save a dumb newborn.

"She didn't know what she was doing" Esme Cullen quickly cuts in when I'm going to the newborn "we'll take responsibility for her"

"Give her a chance" Carlisle Cullen begs

"The Volturi don't give second chances" Jane makes it clear "Felix" When I go to the newborn I rip her apart before heading to the others.

"Charlotte" Rosalie asks "is"

"Her well-being is no longer your concern" Jane stated "let's go"

"She's my daughter!" Rosalie screams

"Who you let her be brutalized by your own coven mate!" I yell, the earth rumbles beneath us that the human falls "tell whatever to make yourself feel better but if you had done what was right, that vampire" pointing to Edward "would have either been banished or destroyed" glaring at the vampire with his blood singer who cowers.

Kill him I hear my soul order me destroy one of the Cullens

I feel my energy reach its breaking point and suddenly this ball of electricity hits Edward Cullen making him fly back. What the fuck? Everyone stares at me, I stay stoic and run to my mate.

Twenty-Five

"Dude!" Demetri shoved shoulder "why didn't you tell us you could do that?" I'm in the apartment with the others, Charlotte was discharged and we aren't leaving for a few days. I'm letting her say goodbye to her friends on La Push before leaving. She's currently sleeping on the bed in our room.

"I didn't know I could" muttering

"How did you do it?" Jane asks

"I was so angry with them" looking away "it was like a part of my soul was telling me to kill them, that harming them would be alright" I go to my mate, I see her sleeping and I climb into bed holding her. She wakes up but when she sees it's me she goes back to sleep and holds me, I hold her close not wanting to let her go.

~Charlotte's POV~

When I wake up, I see Felix holding me and I hug him. Right now, being in his arms is perfect. Like he can shield me from the world, that if anything bad were to happen it wouldn't matter since I have him. "Morning" his cold breath tickles against my skin. My eyes only seeing his beautiful red eyes in the dark since the shades have been pulled.

"Morning" I mutter into his chest "are we leaving today?"

"Tomorrow" he pulls the covers of the bed up and covers me more when I shiver "your saying goodbye to those in La Push first"

"I thought it was frowned upon to do that?" Looking up at him

"For normal humans"

"Am I not a normal human?" Joking

"This feels like a trap" he tells me, I nod my head before I feel a bit hot "what's wrong?"

"Nothing" shaking my head before I turn around and see a trash bin by the bed, I get up soon and vomit into the bin. Oh fuck! Am I sick?

As I vomit, Felix pulls my hair back with his cold rough hands and rubs my back. Looking up I realize it was too fast and vomit again. "Jane!" I hear Felix call out "is there a thermometer here?" Right, whenever I was sick as a child mom needed to use a thermometer some everything to her was the same.

"Here" I hear a beeping near me "101.2"

"Should we get a doctor?" Felix asks

"No" I hear Alec "she just needs rest and be watered"

"Watered?" Demetri scoffs "she's not a plant"

"Just stay by her as she rests, we'll get some soup stuff and stuff like that" Jane assured Felix "keep that trash can by her too"

~Time Skip~

"See" I hear Jane "she's fine"

"She's still sick"

"Why don't we help ease your mind?" Demetri suggests

"Like that lightning that came from you?" Alec suggests. What lighting? Can he produce lighting like Kate? Why do I feel a serious amount of worry?

"I'm calling the kings" Felix declared "this isn't natural"

"How do you know?" Jane asks

"It's a feeling"

~Felix's POV~

"A feeling?" Jane repeats with condensation in her voice "I also have a feeling, a feeling Charlotte is just sick with the flu or something"

"Wait!" Demetri curd between us when we glare at one another "I remember something from my early days as a vampire, give me a moment" he pulls out his phone and dials someone. We hear a males voice "Amun"

"Ah Demetri" Amun happily says "how's it been? What can I do for you?"

"Felix found his mate and something is wrong with her" Demetri tells him "me and the twins think it's just the flu or some normal human thing but Felix is insisting it isn't"

"Hmm" Amun thinks "can you give the phone to Felix?" Handing the phone to me "yes, Felix?"

"Yes"

"Right now what are you feeling?" He asks

"Worried" is all I say since that's all I'm feeling

"Besides that" he says "inside of you, do you feel something besides worry?"

I take a moment and think, well feel. As I do, I feel a bit warm "I feel warm"

"You feel warm?" Alec asks

"Felix" Amun asks "since meeting Charlotte or before that, have you ever had any intense emotions you just don't know where they came from?"

"Like his mood swings a couple months back?" Demetri speaks up

"What mood swings?" He asks

*"*A couple months back" Jane tells him "Felix started having mood swings, one minute he was fine then the next he overreacted over the stupidest thing"

"Santiago wanted to know if vampires could get PMS" Demetri added

"How old is your mate?" Amun asks

"Eighteen" I answer

"In the past eighteen to nineteen years have you felt not yourself sometimes?" He asks

"Yes"

"It's possible she's your true mate" Amun tells me

"What's a true mate?" I ask

"True mates are extremely rare. It's how they say, a needle in a haystack for vampires" Amun explains "as vampires we have mates yes, but when that mate dies we feel depressed or angry except one day we can have another. True mates are it, true mated vampires know from the moment their other half is conceived that they exist"

"Are you saying are you saying the past eighteen years Felix had known Charlotte existed?" Alec asks

"Yes" I stare at Charlotte "but the intensity of the bond between the two heightens when one normally the human turns eighteen"

*"How much is it heightened?"* I ask

"An unnatural fever takes over" my eyes widen "think of it like how animals go into heat kind of, but this is her body's way of saying she needs to be turned but also marked"

"Marked?" Demetri asks

"How long has your mate been having a fever?" He asks

"Almost seven hours, the fever didn't break though" I explain "it just got worse"

"Your going to need to bite her" he explains

"But won't that turn her?" Jane asks

"Felix, because she is your true mate you can will your venom to either heal her or turn her" Amun carefully explains "but you need to do it soon, the fever will only worsen by each day" I hand the phone to Demetri and go to Charlotte. Picking up her upper limp body, I lean down and bite her neck. I don't want her turned yet, but I don't want her dead.

Twenty-Six

~Demetri's POV~

"Thank you, Amun" I knew he was the right vampire to call. I remember him telling me a story about mates and one of them was about a true mate.

"Of course" he answers "Demetri? Has Felix demonstrated things he never would have done before?"

"Like blast lightning?" I ask

"Yes" Amun sighs "there's something you need to know, true mates because of how rare they are are also very dangerous"

"Dangerous?" Jane asks "how?"

"Listen very carefully" he says "Carlisle Cullen and Aro Volturi can never know about them"

"Why?" Alec asks

"Marcus was a true mate" Amun explains "he and Aro's sister Dydime could do things that Aro didn't like. Like be able to hide their thoughts from him or be able to feel each other's thoughts and or hear one another—but what really pissed him off was the power they both shared"

"What power?" I ask

"Together they could summon cosmic fire"

"Cosmic fire?" Jane asks

"Individually as you know Marcus can see bonds, but Dydime could create life. I don't know how but put together they could create cosmic fire"

"What about Felix and Charlotte?"

"I don't know" he says "but Aro will destroy either if they attempt to not be apart of the Volturi"

"What about Carlisle Cullen?" I ask

"Even though he is my friend" Amun sighs "I wouldn't put it past him to have already know Charlotte is a true mate. Carlisle much like Aro wants power but he believes himself superior because he and his coven drink animal blood"

"What do we do?" I ask

"Hide them" Amun tells me "or better yet, fake their death"

"What?" We ask

"Call Marcus and he will help you" Amun confidently says "he helped the last true mated pair"

"Who?" Jane asks

"His daughter"

"Marcus has a daughter?" We all ask

~Marcus's POV~

I'm staring at a photo in my room of my daughter, Stella. Mine and Dydime's star. Before Dydime died, we convinced Aro to let us travel for a bit. During that time Dydime gave birth to Stella. I managed to hide her from Aro since she was born human but after fifty years and only looking like an eighteen year old she was a hybrid.

I kept her hidden with the help of Amun, I know it was my coven that overtook the government of vampires but Amun agreed since he knew I didn't want any part in it. Without Dydime, life just isn't as lively as it use to be. I miss her laugh, the way she smiled, those beautiful blue eyes of hers.

When my phone rings, I look to see it's from Demetri "hello" answering it "Demetri"

"Master" he replies "we need your help"

"With what?" Putting my daughters photo away, she and her true mate died a few years back because of Carlisle Cullen. I will destroy him if it's the last thing I do.

"It's Felix" he replies "he's a true mate" that explains his mood swings and everything for the past nineteen years I believe it's been.

"How wonderful" sighing "how do you know for sure?"

"I spoke with Amun"

"Let me guess" Thinking "the girl is human"

"She is" he confirms "but what concerns us the most is Aro"

"Yes" knowing full well how Aro will react, he's never liked situations like this "off of Florida there is an island specifically for true mates"

"Where?" Jane asks

"Only Felix and his mate can find it" explaining "they will know"

"Does he mean the Bermuda Triangle?" Alec asks

"Yes" only true mates live there, long ago it was created by the first true mates pair for a safe haven for true mates and their families. I sent my daughter and her mate there and they have lived happily for years, unfortunately no children. But then they left for some reason and they died.

"But Aro will wonder" Demetri stresses

"Let me handle him" hanging up, I go to find Aro. I still have a few things from what I got as a true mate.

I find Aro reading outside in his normal secluded spot, going over he smiles at me "Marcus, what a nice day it is?" Sitting down next to him.

"Yes" I agree "it is" then I press my lips to his.

Twenty-Seven

~Felix's POV~

"What?" I ask the three "we need to go where?"

"The Bermuda Triangle" Demetri told me earlier about needing to hide from Aro and Carlisle, but to fake our deaths? That seems a bit extreme.

"How will me and Charlotte fake our deaths?" I ask "it's not the same as humans, also where in the Bermuda Triangle are we" looking at Charlotte who is now a vampire. I know I could heal her with my venom but I'd rather her be a vampire than still human.

"Marcus said you two will know where the place is" he shoos us off "now go, we are heading back to Volterra"

"My eggs?" Charlotte asks "I had them frozen and"

"Here" Jane has some paperwork "your eggs will be mine, so that no one else can take them. You just need to sign it" my mate nods her head and signs the documents "but before we go, someone here needs to change his mate" we look at Demetri.

"I'll do it tonight" he informs me "I'll take her to New York" we nod our heads, I look at Charlotte who takes my hand. Like we know what to do, we run out of the alley we were in and go to the island that apparently we know how to find.

~Demetri's POV~

I track my mate, apparently she had left Seattle to go and do some sort of surgery down in California? I'm not sure, all I heard was that she left so now I run. When I smell blood, I run faster and I find my mate underneath a plane wing. Grabbing the metal, I remove it. Since no one else is around, I pick my mate up quickly and run her away.

When I am certain no one is around, I bite down in her neck and she screams. I put my hand over her mouth "don't worry il mio bellissimo chirurgo" I hold her to me as she goes through the change "everything will soon be alright.

~Charlotte's POV~

I look in the water as I move my hands over my new body, luckily the implants I got stayed. Apparently the venom froze them, but then again it was just saline. Basically freezing water, I mean yeah. When I look over, I see Felix has a human with him and I let my instincts take over. I bite into the humans neck and drain the person dry, pulling back I ask Felix "aren't you going to have a bite?" He smiles and comes over, together we drain the human dry.

When the human falls, I take Felix's hand and we go and find this island. As we go, I sense something and go in that direction. When we find land, we see this beautiful island. Going to it, we step foot into the beach and look around the place. "This place is beautiful"

"Not as beautiful as you" Felix tells me, turning my head I smile at him. We go deeper into the forest, as we go we hear birds chirping. We soon find a village where there are, many other vampires. They soon look our way and smile.

"Hello" we turn to see a woman with blonde hair and tan skin "I am Astra, this is my mate Carl" a vampire with dark skin and cropped hair stands beside her.

"I'm Charlotte, this is Felix" I introduce "where are we?"

"Paradise" Carl informs us "this is where true vampires and their mates come" he and Astra walk away "follow us"

"How come we've never heard of this place before?" Felix asks as we follow them

"Because Felix Volturi" Astra explains "of Aro Volturi and Carlisle Cullen, see as you now know you have powers most vampires don't. Aro and Carlisle would want them, many vampires here have powers and Aro especially would want them" we see small children run around

"Children?" I ask

"As true mates" we get to a home "a gift we all share is being able to have children together" now I wish I never got my eggs extracted.

"You got your eggs extracted?" Carl asks, I look at him "apologies I too am a telepath, but unlike Aro or Edward I don't voluntarily read everyone's thoughts all the time. Sometimes I accidentally read minds"

"No matter" Astra waves her hand "children here are hybrids" she then motions to the home "Your home"

"Our home?" Felix asks

"All new true mates have homes that pop up once the mates find each other" Astra tells us "everything you want is inside"

"But first" Carl says "let's see what gifts you have so that they can be properly trained"

"If you know Marcus" Astra informs us "lost his daughter because she didn't know how to properly use her gifts, so Edward Cullen killed her"

"Does he hate true mates?" I ask

"Yes" Carl nods his had "see, one of our true mates is a seer" I stiffen "not like Mary-Alice, his name is Orion and he knows how to control his gift. His mate Connor makes sure he can use his gifts properly and not like Mary-Alice, well Edward heard from Orion when he and Conner were visiting New York how Edward will never have a true mate"

"He has been single handedly been destroying true mates or potential true mates" Astra sighs upset "Carlisle isn't any better, he just wants to experiment on us. It's why this island was created and why we have strict rules about leaving"

"Our friends" Felix asks

"You can speak with them, even video chat or call because of the power around the island no one can find you" Astra tells us "now if you'll excuse us, our daughter is calling for us"

Twenty-Eight

"Felix?" I find him on the couch video chatting Demetri, apparently three months prior Demetri changed his mate who is taking being a vampire hard. He looks up at me and smiles, I sit next to him and see Demetri "Hi Demetri"

"Charlotte" he greets "how's my future niece or nephew" Felix puts a hand over my baby bump which is about the size of being nine months pregnant. The baby kicks when he or she feels Felix's hand.

"They are taking too long" I say "to get here, the baby is kicking my bladder like she or he is playing soccer" looking at him "has Lexi gotten any better or"

"She's with Heidi" sighing "but that's not why I'm calling"

"Why?" I ask "what's wrong?"

"Your mother won't stop calling" he says "she is close to storming here and revealing you are alive if you do not come, apparently Alice knows you are still alive"

"I don't care" Felix tells me "if she is your mother, I will kill her"

"Call my mother" I tell Demetri "and tell her I will see her in a week or two" he nods his head and I end the call.

"I was still talking to him" Felix growls

"You big baby" I mock before letting out an oof, Felix gets on guard "I'm alright it's just" I grab his arm when the baby kicks harder "okay baby, I get it you are like daddy wanting to-oh god" I bend over holding my gut.

"Charlotte" Felix picks me up into his arms "don't worry" he runs to my out bed and sets me down "I'll get Astra" I nod my head, I grip the sheets and cry out in pain. It takes about a minute before Felix is back with Astra who comes to my side.

"How long has the pain been like this?" She asks

"A few minutes" I cry out again, just then I feel something wet "oh god, did I pee myself?"

Astra looks down and smiles looking at us "Charlotte, your in labor"

"What?" I gasp out, Astra comes between my legs again and goes to open them when Felix stops her.

"I need to see how far she's progressed" Astra informs Felix

"Felix" I hold my hand out "hold my hand" he comes to my side and I squeeze his hand as Astra checks.

"Charlotte" Astra firmly looks at me "you need to push, the baby isn't waiting. It's coming out now!" I scream gripping Felix's hand as I push out our baby, as I do this I hear cracks. Soon we hear the cries of our sweet baby, I laugh as I no longer feel any pain "it's a girl"

"A girl?" I ask as Felix goes over and our baby is handed to him, Felix comes back over and we look down at our baby who has red hair like me and green eyes "she has your eyes"

"She does" Felix confirms "hi there" he then looks at me "we need a name" oh yeah, we didn't really think of a name for her.

"How about Leralynn" looking at him "Lera for short"

"I like it" he looks at our daughter who looks at us both quit "hi there Lera"

"Since I chose her first name" I say "what do you want her middle name to be?"

"How about Anna?" He suggests

"I like it" nodding my head "hi there Leralynn Anna Bell" she takes my hand in her small one tightly, it seem someone is going to be strong like their daddy. We changed our last names to Felix's original last name which was Bell.

Twenty-Nine

"I can't believe we have to go see them" Felix complains, he's acting more of a baby than our daughter who looks to be about three years old "can we go back?"

"No" I growl "quit being a baby, your setting a bad example for Lera" said child stares at Felix with wide eyes.

"Fine" he grumbles

"Quit grumbling" I am also exasperated with this, even though I don't want to visit them I know it's either this or the Volturi finding out. It's near the middle of November and in Washington snow is already on the ground. So we have Lera wearing warm red dress with black tights and black shoes. She's also wearing a black coat.

Felix is wearing an all black outfit which is a t-shirt with jeans and a leather jacket with shoes. I'm wearing a red turtleneck dress with high knee black boots.

When we arrive we are outside of the house, Felix is holding Lera to him determined not to let anyone take our daughter. I knock on the door and soon it opens to my mom who has a hand over her mouth and has dry tears in her eyes "Charlotte!" She grabs me and pulls me into a hug "I knew you'd come back"

"What" I push her off of me "do you want?"

"I wanted to see you" she sadly says "look honey" taking my hands "I'm sorry for keeping you from your mate and how Edward has treated you but"

"Save it" I pull my hands back "I came to make it clear that I want nothing to do with you" she looks at me sadly.

"Who's this?" She looks at Lera who hides her head in her fathers neck when Rosalie looks towards her, I need to get my mind to remember to call her Rosalie.

"My daughter" she looks at me then she looks at Lera.

"I have a granddaughter" when she goes towards Lera, Felix growls warningly. His eyes black.

"As you can see" I state "we only came to make sure you hear it clearly" looking at her "I don't want you in my life, you and this entire coven is dead to me"

"Lotte" I see dad-I mean Emmett come towards us "please"

"No" shaking my head "now, me and my family will be leaving now"

"Wait!" I inwardly groan when I hear Carlisle's voice "we are in trouble"

"I'm going to regret this" I whisper to Felix, turning to face the Cullens "why?"

"Edward and Bella have a daughter" I wave my hand to get to the point "the Volturi think she's an immortal child"

"Is she?" Felix demands holding Lera closer while looking at the house like it's done him wrong. Well, the people inside have.

"No" Carlisle shakes his head "she's half human half immortal, we need as many witnesses because the Volturi are coming to kill us"

Felix and I look at each other before nodding our heads, they smile as we walk inside. Carlisle leads us to the other hybrid "hi there" I hear Rosalie

"Do not" Felix warns "speak to my daughter" I see Rosalie and Emmett frown.

"She's my granddaughter" she protests

"We" I snarl at them "agreed to help you, don't push it" she nods her head and we walk to where we see many vampires. Looking around the room we see Bella who is against the wall with Jacob by her side, of fucking course.

"Your back" Jacob snarls

"And?" I ask "keep up your attitude Jacob Black and I'll become your worst nightmare" I send images of various nightmares into his mind that make him wet himself.

"Charlotte" I look over at Carlisle who has a little girl about ten in front of him, she has brown hair and chocolate brown eyes. A combination of Bella and Edward I see "meet Renesmee" I have my arms crossed "she had a gift"

"What kind of gift?" I ask

"She can project her thoughts" Bella tells us "but only when her hand is on your face" but all I do is listen to her heart beat, looking at Felix I nod my head and he nods his.

"Who's that?" Edward gestures to our daughter

"This is my daughter" crossing my arms "she's a hybrid like Renesmee"

"She is?" One of the vampire witnesses asks

"She is" Felix confirms

"Does she have a gift?" Someone asks

"She does" I confirm, she has a gift for plants. She's our own little Poison Ivy, Felix and I like to say.

Thirty

"Charlotte" Felix comes towards me and Lera, she's currently taking a nap. Her head on my lap as we are on the couch, my mate comes in with four vampires who have tan skin and dark hair "meet Amun and his mate Kebi, his venom son and daughter Benjamin and Tia"

"Hello" I greet "your Demetri's venom father right?"

"I am" he confirms "it's a pleasure to meet you, both of you" he waves to Lera. Since arriving a few days ago, the vampires have met Lera who is a very shy girl. She stayed by her dad the entire time, Felix kept a vigilant eye on everyone. Especially Edward since it was clear that his hate for me only increased since coming back. The Cullens have tried to get to know Lera or even meet her but we don't let her, some of the witnesses have helped since they have seen how they didn't want to upset a pair of true mates. "I am sorry that the Cullens have taken you and your mate from your home"

"Why be sorry?" I ask "it's not your fault for the Cullens and their actions" just then Lera wakes up and looks up at us with wide eyes and stays quiet "it's okay baby, these vampires won't hurt you"

"Hello" she sits up and uses my arm as a shield "I'm Lera"

"It's nice to meet you Lera" Amun smiles "I am Amun, this is my mate Kebi" he gestured to the vampire behind him "and our children Benjamin and Tia" just then we see Renesmee run into the room with Jacob behind her, I have been meaning to see the wolf pack but it's been a while.

"The pack know your here" Jacob informs me "they want to see you, also...her" he nods his head at Lera. Because of his tone, Felix grabs Jacob by the throat causing Renesmee to scream. All the vampires come in to see what's happening.

"What happened?" Carlisle demands

"Jacob said something to upset Felix" Edward tells him

"The next time" Felix warns Jacob "you look or talk to my mate or daughter the way you do, I will rip your spine out and wear it as a necklace"

"Do you understand?" I ask Jacob, he nods his head. Felix drops the boy and Renesmee runs to him.

"Can" Lera asks "we meet the wolf pack?"

"Sure" I nod my head, looking at Felix "Felix?"

"If they know what's good for them no one will imprint on her" I shake my head while some vampires laugh, standing Lera grabs my hand as we leave. She looks to be about seven right now. As we leave the house, we pass by Rosalie and Emmett who look at us with various expressions. Most hurt.

When we are outside, Felix picks our daughter up and we run to La Push. When we are outside of the house, Felix and I wrinkle our nose. Felix sets Lera down as she looks around the place. "You" Felix whispers "owe me big time"

"Not my fault with how they smell" I say "But as consolation how about we" I cover Lera's ears "try to make her a big sister?"

"We are only here for ten minutes" Felix states and I laugh, we go up to the door and it opens to Sam.

He looks shocked to see me "Lotte?" I nod my head and he pulls me into a hug, I hug him back "your a vampire"

"I am" confirming "Sam meet mine and Felix's daughter Lera" Sam looks down at Lera who hides behind my leg "Lera meet Sam"

"Hello" she waves her hand

"Hello" Sam crouches down "I'm Sam"

"Lera" she whispers

"She's shy" I tell Sam "now where is everyone?"

"In the living room" Sam moves aside "everyone! Look who's here!" We see the pack who look at me and I feel Lera go to her dad when the wolves come our way.

Thirty-One

"Charlotte!" Paul was the last to hug me "oh god, I've missed you"

"I've missed you too" I tell him "how's it been? Have you met your imprint?"

"I have, her name is Rachel" he confirms "she is visiting her dad right now"

"Good for you" I tell him "oh" I remember "everyone" I wave Lera over and everyone looks at Lera as she walks over but hides behind my leg "meet Lera my daughter, she's a hybrid like Renesmee"

Emily comes over and crouches down "hello there, I'm Emily" I tilt my head looking at her before smiling, I hear a second heartbeat come from her.

"Hello" Lera whispers "to you both"

"What?" Emily asks, Felix and I share a look. Apparently we know something the wolves don't.

"The baby" Lera points to her stomach

"What baby?" Jared asks "Emily are you pregnant?"

"No" she denies, oh? She didn't know, this is embarrassing.

"Em" she looks at me "you are"

"No" she shakes her head "I had my period"

"Was it a lot?" I ask "of blood" she blushes "sorry Em but we can hear the baby's heartbeat" she probably had some spotting, but if it was a lot of blood then it's concerning.

"Emily?" Sam asks looking at her

"I" she thinks "um" she then runs out of the room and we hear vomiting, Sam runs after her.

"Well" Embry laughs "isn't this a day of surprises" he comes over and crouches down "hi(I'm Embry"

"Lera" she whispers

"Lotte!" We turn to see Seth run inside and hug my "oh my god!" He pulls away and holds his hand out to Felix "hi I'm Seth, it's nice to meet you"

Felix takes it "Felix" Seth then looks at Lera and he crouches down "hi I'm Seth, it's nice to meet you Lera"

"How do you know my name?" Lera asks shocked that he knows her name.

"You know that wolf that has been walking around over by the Cullens?" She nods her head "I'm one of those wolves, the other is my sister Leah"

"Oh?" She thinks "your wolf is big"

"Thanks" Seth smiles "hey, if it's okay with your folks I can shift into a wolf and ride on my back"

"Like a pony?" She asks, he nods his head "Mon? Dad?"

"Sure" missing my head, I look at Felix "Felix?"

"You can only be around this house" Felix makes it clear "and nothing dangerous" Seth nods his head.

"Wait here" Seth tells Lera, when he runs outside we wait some time before Lera gasps and points outside. We see Seth poke his head inside the door.

"Seth does know he can't fit through the door in that form right?" Jared asks someone, Felix picks Lera up and we watch as Lera looks terrified being on Seth's wolfs back.

"Daddy" she looks down to her dad terrified "I'm scared"

"Don't worry" Felix stays by her side "I won't let anything bad happen to you"

"Promise?" She asks

"Promise" he nods his head, Seth soon walks a bit and Lera screeches gripping onto Seth's back for dear life.

"Hey Lera" I turn my head to see Leah come over.

"Leah" we hug, pulling apart we look back to Seth walks around with Lera on his back who is very terrified.

"I don't know what's more crazy, you came back" Leah says watching the scene with amusement "or that your mate who drinks human blood being more of a father than that mind fuck Cullen" we see a car come in and out comes Kim, Angela and I'm guessing Rachel"

Thirty-Two

"Acquisition" Edward says, Felix and I have just returned from being with the pack all day. Lera is wiped out and sleeping in Felix's arms "it's all about power, I won't ask you to fight but I will"

"Oh please" I scoff, everyone looks my way "why don't you tell everyone about why Marcus will want you dead more than anyone"

"What?" Eleazar asks "why?"

"Edward" I tell everyone "killed Marcus's daughter because she was a true mate" Edward clenches his jaw "you see, for years Edward has been hunting true mated pairs because he isn't one"

"You bitch" Edward goes to attack but Kate grabs him and uses her powers on him, when Bella goes to help I see this shield like thing around Edward and destroy it with my mind.

"Why isn't my shield working?" Bella cries out

"Charlotte can destroy mental shields" Felix informs her "but what she said is true, I will not fight people who I see as family but if Aro tries to kill my daughter or mate I will kill him" Tanya grabs Edward and brings him away from us.

"Enough Edward!" Tanya growls "is this why you beat up Charlotte for no reason?" He huffs crossing his arms looking away "I want an answer! Now!"

"From the day she arrived she had changed our lives" he growls looking at me "Rosalie never should have found you, you should have died like your birth parents" wait? What?!

"What do you mean" I ask dangerously "like my birth parents?" The room is silent.

"I knew it" we look to Rosalie "I knew you were wearing fucking contacts! When Charlotte was born, around that time you drained her parents"

"Edward?" Carlisle asks "did you do that?"

"One of them was my blood singer" he mutters

"Oh my god" I shake my head and use my powers on him, I give him a terrible night terror.

"What are you doing?" Bella screams, when she goes to punch me my mate grabs her wrist. I notice Tanya took my daughter, who is still sleeping.

"Enough!" Carlisle screams "we still have the Volturi to deal with, Charlotte release Edward. Now!"

"Fine" I grumble letting Edward go who falls to the floor terrified. When Esme goes to him he screams in terror going back.

"When this is over" Amun makes it clear "lose my number Carlisle" crossing his arms "true mates are cherished and not to be messed with" waving to Edward "yet one of your own hunts them"

"Same with us" Tanya nods her head, everyone soon agrees.

~Time Skip~

I look out the window with my arms crossed, tilting my head I look at my daughter as she plays with Leah and Seth. Leah has made it clear that she doesn't want to be involved with the Cullens or anymore of La Push. That when this is over she is leaving.

What are you thinking? I hear my mate ask, one thing we were able to manage is being able to talk telepathically. Another thing is that when Aro takes our hands the island Paradise will be hidden, so Aro won't be able to find it.

You know those eggs I have that have been fertilized? I ask

With that Paul guys sperm? My mate grumbles annoyed yes, why?

I talked with Paul it was a lot of thought but I'm sure I'm making the right decision and I'm giving the fertilized ones to Leah, she doesn't want to be in La Push anymore and after this we won't be visiting that much. It hurts to leave my friends who I consider family again, but they don't need our vampire drama. We'll stay in touch, but we'll probably visit every few years.

Really? He wraps his arms around my waist, putting his head on my head they are still part you.

And I am still me who can have children with you turning my head to look at Felix Leah is one of the few shifters who has shifted, there aren't many and I wonder if this means she is able to have kids. Like what I'd some stupid thing made it so that only the males could procreate and females can't.

"I" looking at Leah "just hope she survives this, her and all of the wolves"

"Even Jacob?" Felix asks

"No" I laugh "Jacob can die for all I care"

Thirty-Three

It's the night before the battle, earlier Felix talked with Demetri, Lexi and the twins who agreed to meet us after the battle to meet Lera. They have only seen her over a screen but now Lera can't wait, she also knows that they won't harm her.

"Mommy?" I see my daughter look up at me "this Aro, what will happen if he thinks I'm a threat? Will I die?"

"No" shaking my head "you know Uncle Dem? Aunt Lexi? The twins?" She nods her head "they will help us get out of there before anything bad happens"

"But mommy" she cries holding onto me "I don't want them to die"

"Neither do I" I hold her "but they won't and neither will we" Felix opens the flap of the tent to come in, he gets on Lera's other side.

"Daddy?" Lera asks, she looks around eight now "please don't die"

"I won't" he kisses her forehead "I won't il mio ilbrido"

"Go to bed" I order, she nods her head and soon sleeps. When we know she's asleep I look at Felix "if it comes down to a fight, how far do you think we can run?"

"With Demetri, Lexi and the twins help" Felix thinks "farther than the Cullens" I nod head "but knowing Aro, he will either want to kill Lera or use her to get us to come back"

We hear a voice cough, looking over we see that tracker vampire Alister "Alister? Right?"

"Yes" nodding his head "I came because if it comes down to a fight, I won't fight. But I can take your daughter and run her far away from the battle" Felix and I share a look before looking at him "it's clear you both would fight for your daughter's safety"

"You'd help us?" I ask

"I will" nodding his head

"Okay" Felix nods his head "if it comes down to a fight, I want my daughter far away"

"Also make sure she knows we love her" I tell him "incase we don't make it"

"Of course" he nods his head

~Demetri's POV~

The day for the battle is coming soon, I am so pissed that the Cullens have dragged Felix, Charlotte and Lera out of their lives to help themselves. Right now me, Lexi and the twins are far away from the other vampires "Demetri?" Jane asks "what's going on?"

"Felix and Charlotte are going to be there" their eyes widen, I hold my mate to me still afraid she might die. Seeing her under that plane wing or whatever it's called scared me so badly "along with Lera"

"Those Cullens" Jane grumbles "I'm going to kill them"

"Felix told me that their witnesses" I explain the plan "will give Felix and Charlotte enough time to run, we need to help them"

"Anything" Alec agrees "to help them"

"You know" we turn to see Marcus come over "you need to be farther away to hide something from a vampire"

"Marcus" Jane states "we"

"I heard" Marcus speaks dryly "I've talked with Amun, if it comes down to a fight Felix and Charlotte are fighting" our eyes widen "a tracker will take their daughter and flee"

"If it comes down to a fight" Alec speaks "who do we need to take out first?"

"The Cullens" Marcus speaks "their witnesses know that Edward has been destroying true mates and also have agreed to destroy the Cullens since they have caused more harm than good"

"Even the child?" Lexi asks in fear

"No" he shakes his bead

"Demetri" Lexi grabs my arm "we can't let that child become parent less, we just can't" I look into her eyes "please"

"If it comes down to it" I say "we will take that child and leave"

"We" Jane tells us "will help Felix and Charlotte"

"As will I" we look over and see Jasper Cullen or is it Hale, his eyes are also red. Guess he doesn't follow the whole bunny drinking diet "I already know how things will end, Alice told me"

"How does it end?" Lexi asks

"Alice will provoke Aro and Aro will take Alice to get Carlisle to fight" looking around "most of the vampires here will die"

"You need Charlotte" Marcus speaks "and Felix to become the next leaders of the Volturi" our eyes widen again "my time and the others have come to its end, it's time I go back to my mate"

"We understand" Jane nods her head

"I best get going before Alice knows I'm gone" Jasper soon leaves.

~Third Person's POV~

Everyone is waiting for the Volturi to arrive, Felix and Charlotte are to the side with their daughter who is in front of them holding onto her parents. Felix has his arm around his mates waist, his hand over her belly where they just found out they were expecting again. Alister was near them ready to grab Lera and leave.

Charlotte is really nervous, since not only is hers and her mate and daughters but also now her and Felix's unborn child. She is currently wearing a black top with high waist blue jeans and black ankle boots with a dark brown leather jacket.

"The red coats are coming" they hear Garrett nervously say "the red coats are coming" when they see the Volturi come out, Lera wants to hide but Felix and Charlotte won't let her since they aren't risking anything. Many of the Volturi are shocked to see Felix alive since they were told that he along with his mate had died.

When everyone is there, the Volturi soon take off their cloaks. Carlisle walks forward when the wolves arrive to stand near them, Paul is by Charlotte and her family "Aro, let us discuss things as we use to. In a civilized manner"

"Fair words Carlisle" Aro speaks "but given a little out of place against the battalion you've assembled against us" looking over at Felix "and I assume you did something to keep our executioner and his mate from returning?"

"It was never my intent" he then looks at Charlotte and Felix "Felix and his mate left our coven, so them not coming back to yours is all their own"

"Felix?" Aro asks

"I am not returning" Felix makes it clear "neither is my mate" Aro clenches his jaw before looking back to Carlisle.

"No laws have been broken here" Carlisle speaks

"Do not take us for fools!" Lera screeches hiding herself between her parents when she hears Caius "we see not only one but two children!"

"They are not immortals" Carlisle stresses "these witnesses can attest to that or see for yourself, the flush of human blood in their cheeks"

"Artiface!" Caius denies

"I" Aro holds his hand up "will collect ever facet of the truth, but someone more central" holding his hand out "Edward, since your child seems to cling to your newborn mate" looking at Felix "and Felix, what have you been up to since leaving months ago?"

Felix snarls before looking to his mate then to his daughter, crouching down "il mio ilbrido? Daddy has to go for a moment but I'll be right back" Lera looks at him with tears that break his heart "stay by mommy, alright?"

"Do you have to?" She asks

"I do" kissing the top of her head "daddy will be right back" he stands and Charlotte bends down and holds her daughter as they watch Felix walk towards the Volturi, Edward was waiting for him so they can both go together. Felix's friends see Lera with tears as she watches her dad go to them, many emotions go through each of them wondering why he hid this from them.

When Felix and Edward and before Aro, Edward's hand is taken first. Aro sees everything that has happened then he takes Felix's and sees everything but Paradise Island. "I'd like to meet them" Aro looks at the girls

"Baby" Charlotte tells her "stay by my side, okay?" Lera nods her head as they walk, Paul right behind them. Bella soon brings her daughter with Jacob towards them but looks at Emmett wanting more backup, soon he comes forward.

When they are before them, Aro looks between both girls before laughing loudly that doesn't frighten Renesmee but it does frighten Lera that she runs behind her mother and hides. Felix goes over to hide his daughter, everyone sees how dangerously dark his eyes are. His friends knowing that when Felix is this mad it's best not to go near him.

Thirty-Five

"I hear their strange hearts" Lexi scowls at Aro for scaring a child, she hates how everything is right now. She, Demetri and the twins know that Lera is a shy child and that she sometimes gets scared easily in certain situations like this. Aro holds his hand out for one of the girls to take, Renesmee steps forward first.

"Hello Aro" she says putting her hand on his cheek and shows him her first memory before pulling away. He looks over to Lera who is hiding.

"Lera" Felix whispers "just give him your hand"

"What if he kills me?" She asks

"He won't" Felix growls "not while I'm here" Lera thinks before nodding her head, she takes a few steps forward and gives her hand over. Aro takes it and Lera screeches and uses her powers to wrap Aro up in a bunch of vines, she then runs to her parents.

"She attacked" Caius screams only for Marcus to hit him "Marcus!"

"She's a shy child" Marcus looks at him "who was taken off guard by Aro's abruptness when he took her hand, no one attack"

"Mommy" Lera cries "daddy, I want to go home"

"In a bit" Felix picks his daughter up who holds onto him, his friends send sympathy glances not meaning to frighten his daughter. Aro gets out of his bonds and looks at the child.

"I never"

"Give it a rest" Charlotte growls "you've seen my daughter, you don't need to see her memories"

Aro looks at her "ah, you must be Charlotte" holding his hand out "pleased to"

"I" Charlotte growls "am not giving you my hand, try to see my memories and I'll become your worst nightmare" she soon sends Aro a nightmare of Sulpacia being murdered in front of him.

Aro nods his head, soon the family leave "half human" Aro announces "half immortal" gesturing to the girls "conceived and carried by both newborns while they were still human"

"Impossible" Caius breathes

"It's not" Marcus states "Dydime had my daughter before she died" Aro and Caius look at him.

"What?" Aro asks taking his hand and soon sees a daughter, Marcus's daughter. Pulling his hand back "why haven't I met my niece?"

"You killed her mother" Marcus growls "she would be here but Edward killed her" everyone looks to Edward "I may not be here to kill the child but I am here to exact justice for my daughter's death" Edward hears from all the witnesses how they won't help him if Marcus goes to kill him, neither will the wolves "Alec"

Alex uses his mist to hold Aro and Caius is place "what" Aro demands "is the meaning of this?"

"Demetri, Lexi" Demetri and Lexi destroy Sulpacia and Athenadora. Caius and Aro scream and go to help their mates but it doesn't work. Marcus steps forward and rips both Aro and Caius's heads off. Jane soon sets them on fire.

The Cullens who are watching have hope in their chests, until Marcus says something that frightens them "unlike Aro" Marcus tells everyone "the Olympic Coven have thought themselves too highly, if we are to live in peace they cannot live"

"No" Edward breathes "you can't"

"I can" Marcus informs them "and I am" looking at the others "kill the Cullens" the vampires soon run and attack, the Cullens go to attack but no one helps them. Jacob growls at the wolves but none of the wolves will help so he runs off with Renesmee on his back.

When all the Cullens have been killed, Marcus looks to all the vampires and announces "as the last leader of the Volturi, I shall be passing on the leadership role to Felix and his true mate Charlotte!" Looking at Jane, she destroys Marcus then burns their bodies.

"Congratulations" Alister speaks after a moment of silence "on becoming the new leaders of the Volturi.

Epilogue

It's been years since the death of the Cullens, Felix and Charlotte returned to Volterra with their daughter. Things have become more peaceful since Felix and Charlotte have taken over, Charlotte had given her fertilized eggs to Leah while kept the unfertilized ones. Leah soon used a few and had twins the following year, Paul heard about it and the two have come up with a way to co parent. Charlotte and Felix visited the La Push wolves every decade, but it was hard for Charlotte to watch their friends grow old.

One day, the two decided to have a wedding. Charlotte wanted Sam to walk her down the aisle before he or any of her friends died. Charlotte got to see the children Leah had and they were beautiful, four of them boys while one was a girl. The girl was the only girl Paul ever had since with his imprint, Rachel and he only had boys so all of them were very overprotective of their sister.

Demetri and Lexi used Charlotte's other eggs, since she knows they wanted a child of their own. Well, a hybrid child. They had five girls, Demetri swore it was a curse since he was known as the Casanova of vampires. So he had to be extra vigilant and protective of his daughters.

Felix and Charlotte after Lera has three more children, two boys and one girl. Ripper and Jasper. The last was a daughter who they named Rose, even though Charlotte was angry with her parents she loves them so she and Felix named them after them. Jasper and Alice were soon found and killed, Jasper knew his time was up when Demetri and Lexi were there. It turned out Lexi could manipulate life force's so she was known as the new executioner.

Lexi and Demetri also visited Washington several times, once for Derek's funeral, then Richard Webber's, then the rest of her friends. The last time she went was to see her sister Meredith who was at home hooked up to machines, the two got to talk for a bit until Meredith died. Now Lexi and Demetri watch over Meredith's and her sister Molly's descendants, Lexi even went back to medical school and became a surgeon.

If your wondering what happened to Renesmee and Jacob, the two died in a motorcycle accident. A drunk driver crashed into the bike Jacob was driving killing the two instantly.

~Charlotte's POV~

I'm in the back with my children and mate as we wear contacts, those who know us know we are vampires. Which is basically everyone here. We each pay our respects to Paul, he was the last of the original shifters of my generation to pass away. When he did it was in his sleep, I look at Leah's children who are also my children cry for their father. They know I'm their biological mother, but it was clear that Leah was and will always be their mother.

When it's time to give speeches, I go last "Paul was my best friend, he helped me through so much when I was human. I remember when I had my first boyfriend, he was so overprotective of me that when the guy broke my heart he broke several of my ex's bones" I smile sadly "I wish I could cry right now because he deserves tears" looking at Paul who lays peacefully "I hope one day I can see him and the others again, the only thing I can say now is" closing my eyes I think "one day, one day we will see each other again and thank you for helping me help Leah" looking at the kids "have children and bringing more light into the world, even though they have your dramatics" some people laugh "I love you Paul Lahote and I will always miss you" I leave to my family then, my mate holds me to him as we soon leave to bury Paul.

~Felix's POV~

"No" I shake my head "no, no" looking at my eldest daughter who sits across from me and Charlotte "who is he? I will kill him"

"Dad" Lera calmly states "you know I love you but don't kill them"

"Them!" I scream standing up, Charlotte wraps her arms around my legs like a child to keep me in place "them!" I leave the room then with Charlotte still having herself wrapped around my legs.

"Our daughter" Charlotte yells "is in love"

"She is also pregnant" I growl "she is u married and"

"We weren't married when we had her!" She yells

"We were mated when we had her" I see Demetri and Santiago "Demetri! Santiago!" They look our way "find the human that impregnated Lera!"

"Lexi! Renata!" Charlotte yells "stop them!" We watch as they are tackled to the ground. Charlotte soon stands and jumps onto my back like a spider monkey "Felix! If you had listened, Lera's in love"

"She is too young to be in love" I growl "did I say she could talk to boys? To be near a boy? To have sex with boy? No I did not!"

"This is all apart of the process" Charlotte tells me "when Lera comes home heartbroken, we know we did a good job as parents" I look at her like she's crazy, which she is.

With Charlotte on my back I go to find my daughter who is with her other siblings, they look our way and see their mother on my back "what did you do?" Rosella, Rose of short asks Lera.

"You will bring these...humans" I growl "to the castle for dinner"

"You aren't eating them" Charlotte warns "if so no sex for two centuries" she moves her hand down my chest down to my crotch while nibbling my neck, our kids look traumatized right now "now what will it be?"

"Bring them" I order, after three centuries life with Charlotte and our children have changed so much. And I love every minute of it.

Author's Note

Thank you all for reading His Nightmare, it was hard writing the epilogue since having to write about deaths while the main character doesn't age is hard. I hope you liked this and read my other books. I have a few other projects in the mix, I don't know when I'll post any new chapters for those books but you'll have to be patient since I've got school and a job to focus on too.
